

Awakening is an Event, as tangible as snapping your fingers...

February 8, 2008

As you ascend to brighter levels, advanced frequencies of self recognition, you learn about the nature of consciousness, you learn that consciousness is singular, uninterrupted, whole in other words; infinite, universal.

And there are qualities associated with it and you become familiar with those qualities: happiness, peace, relationship, and you learn to associate with those qualities. You learn to accept them as fundamental, as natural. Yes? And you begin to recognize that when those qualities are absent something has gone wrong. That is all!

When happiness is absent, something has gone wrong. And again, what you discover is that when happiness is absent what is wrong is you. That is all.

It is not that happiness is absent, is that you are wrong. Jesus will say; You have sinned, you are off the mark. If you are not happy, you are off the mark.

So you need a correction. But the important thing to understand, when the qualities of the universal awareness are absent, you stop trying to sort it out, you stop to figure it out, you stop everything and you ask for correction.

When you are not happy you stop... you don't try to justify unhappiness....that is insanity. Only insanity justifies unhappiness. Insanity justifies suffering by attempting to share it, all the ways that you do it..... But you see now that you have asked for these brighter perspective, you see immediately the insanity of trying to justify suffering, unhappiness, loss of peace. Yes?

You see immediately..."Ok, something has gone wrong , it is me, I'll ask for a miracle".
What is the miracle? The correction, and that is what this is, that is what this frequency is. It is a brighter perspective. You are learning to see things differently.
" I could see peace instead of this", all of the teachingare only Thoughts that facilitate the correction!

What is A Course in Miracles? A thought that facilitates the correction!

For example, what are these intensives? An open space, where in which God's healing grace can enter into your association with yourself, in order to provide you with a brighter perspective!
That is what these intensives are.

Now, if you are going to make use of this weekend, I suggest that you simply get into the practice of being in a disposition where you can receive the correction. That's what these weekends are about!

What is an intensive? A correction, but it is an intense correction!

You can not get out by dreaming another dream, although a brighter dream is offered you in the transition. The way out is leaving, the way out is awakening.

So what this intensive is, is an open door showing you the way out.
That is what these intensives are for, and this is what must be understood.

Now, you may come and go as a savior, you may leave and return, but when you return you are wholly aware that the door is open, yes?
Many of you have discovered that the door is open and are simply serving in the recognition that you are not bound.

The only way that you can serve is by realizing that you are not bound. You can't serve if you are sharing the suffering associated with being bound in this place. You are only serving having discovered the resolution of this apperency.

All I am trying to do in this intensive is demonstrate what it is to be fixed in the resolution, and then to do anything you do from that perspective.
I don't care what you do, what do I care!
Build a garden... what do I care! It doesn't matter what you do, collect rocks, it doesn't matter, we are collecting rocks from that perspective.

What are we doing by collecting rocks? We are saving the world. Saving the world, of course!
We are saving the world no matter what we do because we are coming from the resolution and therefore offering the resolution.

Listen....nothing happens in isolation. How many of us are here? Most likely there are twelve...will always be twelve, because twelve is all you need, and this twelve will heal the entire world.
Don't be confused by this, don't be mistaken.....whenever two or more are gathered in my name I am there..
And if I am there the world is saved because I am the savior of the world. Don't be confused by the appearances!

What we are doing this weekend is quite literally, saving the world.
Now, those of you who know me know that since I've come back, since I have returned, my only interest has been the acceleration of the evolution of mankind.
I haven't been interested in anything else.

It may appear that I am doing the things human do, don't be fooled!
My mission, my assignment is to accelerate the natural evolution of the human condition. And the way that I do that is I look for those who are ready...do you want to join me for an instant of forgiveness of atonement, of recognition that we are one...yes? And in that instant the world is saved. That is what we do in these intensives.

We gather together..... those of you than know me, know that I am only concerned about those who are interested .
I don't care about numbers, I am not looking for a thousand people, twelve is all we need.
Twelve come together in a single instant of recognition of singular self identity, and that accelerating factor changes everything. Yes?

Everything will change this weekend, not only for you but for what I am calling the primary dream.

The primary dream, let's call it the identity of the world. That is the dream that is being converted this weekend.

And of course yours, right along with it...of course!

One dream is all dreams. When your dream is healed, the world is healed. Yes.

What I am asking you to do with me in this experiment is to join with me and offer your dream to the healing dream that is being offered from outside the frame.

We call it: God's plan for Salvation. We can call it that or the healing of the primary dream; God's plan for salvation. Alright?

And that plan is being administered through you, because you decided to be the savior of the world along with me, as Jesus would teach it. You are saving the world along with me, and he offers His gratitude, just as I do. Thank you for joining me.

I can teach this as: enlightenment, the way to awakening is the recognition that is not for you alone.

When you awaken for the sake, as the Buddha teaches it, for the benefit of all beings, and that is true.

You are here for the benefit of all beings; your function here is to save mankind. Yes! Don't be concerned about yourself, you are already saved. If you are concerned about yourself, you will miss it. Yes, of course. Concern for yourself.... what is that? How did we teach it this morning? Private thoughts!

Your concern for yourself is a private thought, a form of isolation. You are not alone.

What will you discover this weekend? There is only one of us, you are not alone.

You are not alone because there is only one. And that one, in alignment with that one, is healing all things. We call this atonement. I am just trying to use words, so you understand what is going on.

Alright? Thank you for joining with me.

We come together, we are gathered in His name, we are gathered in His name, we are instruments and we are serving Him.

I am here on His behalf. That alignment, by the way, is what awakening is. Do you understand?

I am here on God's behalf.

What did I just say? Your will Father, not mine!

Everything that you need to know, is in that idea. It answers all your questions.

"Father, we are gathered here in your name certain that you will reveal to us everything that is necessary in order to complete out part in your plan for the salvation of the world, and my own as well...."

Yes, that is this weekend. Are you ok?

I love you guys, I love you...thank you for joining me. This is a gathering of Angels. A room full of Saints; that is what you are. You are whole and perfect and in that wholeness, the world is saved.

Thank you....you are not guilty because there are no private thoughts. Exactly.....

Now we are just allowing the stage to be set. Everything that will occur, everything that did occur, everything that is occurring is being animated, orchestrated by God. This is a space, a place prepared for the descent God's healing grace, and we are instruments. What are we? We are Holy Spirit, and it is through us that the world is saved. It is the voice for God, which is what we are. It is through us that the world is saved.

Now, it is a simple matter of identification; I am not a body, I am free.....I am free to serve God, and in that freedom I will find myself. In that freedom I will know myself. Yes. My awareness is free. Thank you, I love you guys. Thank you for this.

This will be your opportunityif you have any questions, ask them now. I will make every attempt to look at you individually...provide you with the help that you need in this transition. But it will be a matter of alignment, and it will be a matter of recognition that there is only one of us.

What we are demonstrating.....let me offer you this....
How do we save the world? We demonstrate the natural evolutionary destiny of mankind. And by demonstrating it, we offer it to everyone. That is what we are doing here. That is what Cel is. Cel is a demonstration of the natural evolutionary destiny of the human condition.

What is the destiny of the human condition? God.
But there is one thing to say that and quite another to be offered it, and to accept an experience that is not opened to question, and that is what this is.
I am offering you an experience that is self authenticated, that is not opened to question.

What is your part? The part is to let go any little ideas that arise during the process. Trust God, trust the process, trust Jesus, trust me, trust your brothers who are one with you, let go of all little ideas, private thoughts, concerns, justifications, judgments....all of that!
And reality will reveal itself to you. It is getting easier and easier....

These introductions are hardly necessaryI love you guys!

Any questions? This is your first time, yes? Are you ok, are you happy? Good.
If you need anything, don't be afraid to ask. This is what this place is for, to ask for help. That is the disposition that is necessary.
I don't know anything, but God knows...and he will show me what I need to know.
Ask and you shall receive.

Are we saving the world?
Did you think it was any more difficult than this?
Every time you listen to music and get together with your friends, you are saving the world. I like listening to the guitar, because.. in order to play guitar well, more that with any other instrument, you have to absent. The only way to play guitar well is not to be there.
Stevie Ray Vaughn....he is not there....
Where is he? He is not there!

Answer to an intervention:

You should know this by now....I am getting tired of explaining....

The only reason why you feel tension is because you are unable to accept the simplicity of salvation. It has nothing to do with me..... I need you to say it. Yes, and the reason that you feel tense is because you are unable to accept the simplicity of what the offering is... it is a gift. All you do is get out of the way, and I am going to say it one more time, because I am tired of explaining it.

What do you do? Get out of the way, get out of the fucking way, just get out of the way.

You have no idea how much light there is, no fucking idea, because if you did, you would be on your knees in gratitude. The only words you would be able to say would be Thank you and you would be weeping with joy, if you understood this offering.

That is not tension. What is tension? Holding on to yourself, and it doesn't get any easier for you.

Tension is holding on to yourself.

Sooner or latter you are going to let go.

Either that tension is going to build to the breaking point, in other words, that tension is going to intensify, it is not going to get better, it is going to get worse. If you insist on holding on to the world, it is not going to get better, it is going to get worse. Yes.

You will end up, who knows....doing anything....when it breaks, it happens all the time in the world. And when that tension builds to the braking point in the world.....what do you do?

Well, you go out and murder thirty people, you start shooting everyone. You are trying to release all that tension and you don't know what so you.....or you screw thirty people, same idea, not any different, of course.

My suggestion to you in this light is to direct that attention to the top of the head. It has only to do with you. If you act out that tension even to the extent that you justify it by expressing it, even to that extent....that a form of justification, a form of attack..... do you understand that is a form of attack? In this light if you insist on identifying that tension, you are attacking the light....absolutely, you are avoiding it, same thing.

How do you attack the light? By avoiding it!

How do you attack God? By avoiding Him!

Jesus teaches it as sickness is a defense against truth.

Let go and let God.

How would it look? It would look like everything that is happening right now.

Everything that is arising is arising for your benefit.

Why the hell aren't you grateful? I have no idea, I don't know how you can hold on to yourself, I have no idea!

It is never enough...I want more, I want more.

The only problem that you ever had, is seeking experiences, the seeking itself is what avoidance is.

So the experience shows up, but you can't see it because you are seeking it.

It is too simple. Do you see? Requires nothing.

I NEED DO NOTHING. That's it, that is it!

That's all you ever have to say.

God is in everything I see because God is in my mind.
What else can I tell you?
Not only is God in your mind, are you ready? God IS your mind.
Did you hear that?
God is the mind with which I think.

Now go ahead, avoid God. Let me see..... it is not possible. Time to wake up! Thank you. I love you.

Now all we are doing is increasing frequency, raising the bottom, call it a miracle, the miracle raises the bottom, collapses time, and we are on our way out.
We are ascending to God. We have begun that ascent.

You can get a sense of it. Everything is different, it is changed. Yes.
And I am trying to do it without generating too much fear.
And there are these periods, what we call respite, but the journey continues, we are leaving here, leaving space and time.
And that will be an event in consciousness, it will be an event, do you understand?
Who doesn't understand event? Anyone? Good, it is an event, it is an occurrence, and it leaves no doubt.
Why? Because it is an event!
It is like snapping your fingers; that is an event, yes? There is no doubt. You are snapping your fingers and it is an event. You got it? It is an event. It has all the texture of an event.

Awakening is an event. It is like snapping your fingers. In other words you will be that certain of it. I am as certain as snapping my fingers. It is an event. Awakening is just like that, it is an event and you are certain of it, and it leaves no doubt.
Ok, that is what is happening here, and is being offered as an event, not as something that you observe, but as something that happens to you. Yes, do you understand?

Along the way, now, as we leave here, you are given glimpses and then you observe it, and you are given another glimpse, you examine it a little bit, and then you are given another glimpse ... you examine it some more.....another glimpse....until you become certain. You become certain that the event is unfolding. We call that trust; trust and certainty are the same idea.

This is a gift now, coming from the other side, designed to assist you in your transition, an open door, simply, allow your mind to slip right through it....I love you, thank you.

Are you ok? Thank you.. You guys, look good.

Don't forget to ask for help, If you need help, ok?
In other ways, to clear away the debris...it is working, it is working perfectly.

That's it for tonight. Let this integrate.
Thank you, I love you.
Buy the way, I am addressing you, even though I am not looking at you, when you don't think I am looking at you, I am looking at you...not with body's eyes. Everyone is being addressed....good.

Thank you.

Namaste
