

Minds are joined

Intensive: Friday, 16 of May 2008

I am looking at all the ways that I have used in order to demonstrate my certainty , my understanding, my realization, my recognition that nothing is wrong, that what appears to be wrong is only an appearance. All of the methods, and all of the practices, that we use, all of the demonstrations, are an attempt to clarify the correction. The correction has already been made.

The illusion of time is the idea that the correction is yet to occur, and the reality, of course, is that the correction is always present. The practice involves a means by which you can cross the gap from the past into the present. Now we we demonstrate this in all sorts of ways, but it really is ultimately a matter of forgetting the past, that is simply letting it go. The problem is in the concept or the idea of letting go.

The only way to transcend, the only way to let go, is to accept responsibility. And that's where you run into the difficulty. Everyone is in agreement here, that we are ready to let the past go. You are ready for something new. You came here because you were looking for something new, you want a new experience.

Now the way that we bring that about is not through denial of the past, or through the simple desire to be rid of the past. It occurs through accepting responsibility for the thoughts in your own mind that always are already passed, in the joyful recognition that there is nothing binding you, that there is nothing out there except the present state, except the present condition. And the present condition is always transition, is always correction.

In the present the only thing occurring is transition. So where are we now? We are in the first intensive we ever held. What is the name of that place? I forget the name of that place... in Villa Franca (summer 2007) . Nothing has changed. We are in the same place. This is the first intensive. And I promise you the quality is exactly the same as it was that first time. There is nothing different here from that first intensive, the second intensive, the third, the fourth intensive.

All of the intensives have the same quality associated with them because they are a demonstration of crossing the gap from the past to the present. When I speak of a demonstration I am not speaking of a conceptual practice or even a mantra, I am not speaking of anything but the actual event, the actual crossing over. And that crossing over is an event, and that crossing over is physical, which is why you want to get close to me.

The closer you are to me physically, the easier it would be for you to cross over. Is this true? The closer you are to me physically the easier it is for you to cross over. This does not mean you need to be in the same room, but it does require that you feel my energy physically. There is only one of us. And there is only one of us physically. And that is a single event that reveals that there is only one body that is crossing over, or one body that is transforming, one physical idea of self which is being converted, which is being re-evaluated which is being reminded.

I have used all sorts of ways, all sorts of forms. I have introduced all sorts of ideas, including this one. This is just an idea. It's an idea that is founded in the light or that comes from the light. In other words the idea of this intensive, the idea of this gathering, comes from the light, and all that is occurring is the recognition that cause and effect are not separate.

The cause of this gathering is light. Therefore the gathering itself, is light. The effect of a cause is the same as the cause. Cause and effect are not separated. And you can teach it in many ways. The approach that I am going to use this weekend is what I wrote in the blog the other day, which says that the theme is that minds are joined.

Minds are joined already, there is nothing to be done about that. Minds are joined, because there is only one mind, one awareness, one reality, one God, one Source. So minds are joined already. That's not the problem. The problem is distinguishing this effect from the One mind. That's the problem. The problem is you sitting there saying: "Ok. Minds are joined but what about this?" And my whole teaching is; there is no difference.

This is the whole physical process of awakening. There is no difference between the pictures or the hologram or the effects of the thoughts in your own mind, and the thought itself. They are the same thing.

Now all I have to do here is be present with you, in order to increase your awareness. You really believe that you returned from that experience in the first intensive. That you returned to the world after that experience. Not true! You left the world and disappeared, period. What is this? This is the fear associated with that occurrence. Maybe you will begin to hear it. I am trying to teach. And by the way this is coming from the old man...

The reason you are here is because when that event occurred, it was too fearful, so you quickly projected an idea to live within, in order to avoid the experience. You know that that is what this is. Now, I am here with you having completed it and returned wholly unafraid, I am here with you, to remind you that there is nothing to be afraid of.

The correction is what you are seeking, and the correction is what I offer you. The correction is taking this shape. The correction is taking exactly this form. This is the form that the correction is taking. You were afraid of the event in its entirety so you quickly re-established yourself. Now I am here with you, saying "Ok, I am with you. When you returned, you brought me with you. You brought me with you as a reminder, as the light. What am I? I am a thought in your own mind. I am the light in your own mind that is being reflected back to you reminding you that, hey, you have already transcended this place. You have already left here. We all left here together".

If you want I can teach it this way. What am I teaching you? Where is Master Teacher? Right here! He is right here reminding you he is taking on another body form. You can teach it all sorts of ways. He is using this body, Jesus is using this body, God is using this body, in order to remind you that the light is with you. You brought the light with you when you came back. And I am here just to remind you of that.

I am a thought in you own mind. That's all. How many minds are there? There is one mind!

There is one self. This is that one self. This is that one self in time. This is what it means to be that One self in time. It looks just like this. What difference does it make? Who cares! What matters is the realization or the recognition, and what matters is the readiness to recognize. Now you are here? right? You are here? You can hear my voice, you can see this body identity... you must be ready! I am here with you so you must be ready.

“ I am not ready.. I am not ready.” You are ready or you wouldn't be here. What are you ready to do? Die? Are you ready to transition? Wake up?... Its all the same idea. You are waking up. That's all! It's very simple. I am showing you that the only way to awaken or to transcend the illusion is to accept responsibility for the thoughts in your own mind.

What does that do? It acknowledges the light in you. As I accept responsibility for you, as thoughts in my own mind, I am acknowledging the light in myself is the same as the light in you. And as I see it in you I recognize it in myself. That is how Jesus teaches it.

This gathering is a reflection of that occurrence. This gathering is the idea that time is keeping pace with you in the transition, that your bottom is being raised. The entire kundalini experience is the “ bottom being raised”. So when you return your bottom is raised, until the bottom and the top are together at the threshold. When the bottom reaches the top or, alpha reaches omega, you are at the threshold. In other words, when there is nowhere to go, all that is left is to awaken.

The problem that you have is that you keep constructing a future. You keep saying; “Well, not yet.. You know.. I am happy within this context”. That's fine. Don't worry. I am not going anywhere. I am here and I will be with you until you make the decision to transition. In some form or another I will be with you. In a form that you are associating with and you can accept receive and understand. Don't worry.

You are responsible for this. And I mean that altogether. So there is nothing to worry about, nothing to be concerned about. You are the cause of this. You are the cause of this occurrence which is a brighter reflection of your own self awareness. You are waking up or you couldn't be here. It is not possible. You are the cause of this. I know you are the cause of this. That is why I can help you. I am certain of it. You may be still uncertain, but I am not. This is why I can help you.

There is only one cause of this, and it is one self and you are that one self along with me and you are beginning to see me as a reflection of your own mind. That's waking up. You are seeing the reflection of your own intention to awaken of your own intention to transcend death, which is the same. You do not get out by dying. No one does, you get out by remembering that you are not here, and that is every thing that I just said.

What are you afraid of? Remembering that you are not here! That is what you are afraid of. And so you construct a future. “ I am This identity, walking through time and space, so I'll do whatever it is I do”. My brother; believe me the tendency is chronic, and that is why you need help. But help is here! The help is with you. That is why I said all you need to do is stand still and expose your self to the light until the process completes itself. There is nothing else you can do. And the light is all around you. It's in this provision, it is in this place, it's in the Master Teacher's videos, its in my videos, the light is all around. Expose yourself to it.

What is generating the outcome of this? The light that you brought! Now up until now, you were afraid to acknowledge it as yourself, so you projected it unto this effect, because acknowledging it as yourself, is what the resurrection is. Acknowledging it as yourself, is what transcending time and space is.

Now what I bring you is transcending consciousness. It's my offering. I am bringing you consciousness which is constantly transcending. If you know me you know this is what I am. This allows me to use all forms, methods, and practices, in order to achieve my goal of transcending consciousness. I'll use everything, but mostly I am here with you, and that is all you need to know. What am I? I am transcending consciousness itself. You can do all sorts of things with that, but mostly what you do is project your ideas about what that is onto me. And what do I do with them? I transcend them! I am transcending consciousness.

And so the best I can do for you is to appear here and transcend your projected ideas. That is how I speed up your time. That is how I awaken you. I am speaking as a Shaman now or as any awakened consciousness returning to expedite or accelerate your sequence or your association in time. I am here to help you. And I know that you are aware that I am here to help you.

You are just a little bit impatient with me because you want me to wave a wand, or say the magic words "abra cadabra" and you would be healed. That is what I am doing right now! I am waving the wand and I am saying the magic words, everything I've said since I opened my mouth are the magic words. All I speak are magic words! I All you have to do is recognize that I am the solution that you are seeking and you are free. I am the solution that you asked for and you are free. That is it. But what you tend to do is: you are waiting for the solution in another form. This is generally what you do, and you blame that on me. I don't know what to do. It has no meaning to me. You can find it in any form, any form will do.

The problem is you are afraid and so you project another form. Of course! Now, what I am hopping to do this weekend ... all I can do is offer you my own demonstration of my own transcending consciousness and during this intensive what I offer you is: I submit myself, my body and my form to the light to the point of physical transformation. In other words I allow my body/mind to be transformed by the light. That is the way it works in the intensives.

Now what that does is offer you no escape. Submitting you to that physical light, offers you no escape because the physicalness of yourself is being revealed as light. I am here with you physically and I am going to intensify it so that you can not escape it. That is going to accelerate your process, so that you have no place to go. You will have to allow the light to penetrate the physical, or you will be busy in you mind denying it, by projecting a future. Projecting some other activity, or remembering the past and retaining the grievances associated with the past which is the same thing. I am saying : Give your burdens to me because my burden is light.

So the theme for this intensive is minds are joined, but that's not all of it. Yes, of course minds are joined, but here is the rest of it. The common dream of salvation, which is this dream, is a theme. Another word for theme could be image or hologram or effect. So it is a theme, projected by one self, assuming all shapes and becoming the very ones who are harvested.

You just felt me physically. It is inevitable that you will feel me physically because there is only one self projecting this theme. In other words you are as an identity, as a body identity an effect of a whole mind. And cause and effect are not apart. So it is inevitable that you would be reunited with the One self. It is inevitable because cause and effect are not apart. Jesus in the kundalini condition as Shiva and Shakti still will be cause and effect, the will to create and the creative impulse, which is the same idea.

Here is the good part: Rejoice ! The body or the form, this very form is the communication. This very shape is the communication, this shape is love. This shape is the love. This shape is where we come whole together. This shape is a form of Grace. This very shape is a form of Grace and this is what is revealed in the physical awakening. In the physical awakening that I will demonstrate to you, that I am beginning to demonstrate to you, what is revealed is that the form itself is not other than the Grace which is bringing about the transition, the translation.

What I am really teaching is that form is emptiness, emptiness is form. Here is what I am really teaching you: YOU ARE NOT GUILTY. There is no guilt. Why? The form is a form of Grace! Everything that you are doing everything that you want to do, all that physicalness is a form of Grace. It is an attempt to grab your attention; to say: there is only light, there is only love. You are not guilty. You are not doing anything wrong. There is nothing wrong. There is no death. Same idea!

Why are you concerned? Why are you sad, woman? Why are you sad? There is no death. Is this Jesus? Jesus, when he returned, what did he do? He sees Magdalene, who is crying, and He says: "Woman why are you concerned? There is no death. Here I am." I am just offering you all another way of teaching it. Another whole thought in your mind. You know the thought, I am just reminding you. Who am I? I am the Master Teacher returning and saying; "Why are you concerned, there is no death."

Jesus says: "Why are you troubled? Why are you troubled?" Obviously, your acceptance of that is required. The only reason that you will wander off is to solve a non existing problem. I just said why are you troubled? There is no reason to be troubled, and you are saying to me "o-k-, I accept that" or you are saying "I am troubled and I'll prove it to you". And you go off and intend to fix your troubles, to solve your troubles. The only way to solve your troubles is to transcend them, and the only way to transcend them is to accept responsibility for them. You are responsible for your own troubles. You are the cause of your own troubles. Don't believe me, is that what this (ACIM) says? You are causing your own troubles. How are you doing it? By projecting them into the future!

"I am going to solve them next week". Do you see that? I am trying to stabilize you in the light, because I know you are waxing and waning a little bit. You are having experiences and then, dropping down in. The only reason you dropped down in is because you have forgotten that the problem is already solved. You have already transcended it. How did you transcend it? You accepted responsibility for it. "I am the cause of this". I am trying to bring cause and effect together for you. Whatever it is that you have in mind to do, you have already done it.

Whatever you have in mind to do, you are the cause of it. It's a thought in your own mind that you project into a hologram and then associate with it, as if it was real. What is it? An effect of a thought that has already been reconciled in you. What am I?. That thought. I am just going to sit here, the same way I watched the old man do it. He would sit there, and everyone was thinking he was teaching. Meanwhile he is just sitting there waiting for you to say:

"OH!"

All I am doing is sitting here. I am not saying anything, I am not doing anything! Here is the problem I run into, the moment I come in I have to make things complicated. The deeper you are in time, the more complicated I have to make them. Because the deeper in time you are, the more complicated you are. Things become very simple at the threshold of dreams, where cause and effect are not apart. You see immediately that "I am the cause of this dream, I am about to embark on another adventure in time and space , and... No I am not going to do that any more! I think I will just stay right here, and allow this process to complete itself".

Now the best I can do for you is offer you this hologram. I don't know what else to do. That's what the old man did in Wisconsin, He offered you a space and said : " I know you believe you are in time and space, so here I offer you a space in time and space... come here, come to this place, this will be a safe place for you to allow the transition to complete itself in you".

How do I know that that is required? Because, it was required for me! I knew that I needed a safe place. I demanded a safe place, and the safe place was given. That is what this is. Somewhere you have demanded a safe place, and the safe place was given you. Now the question remains; are you recognizing it? Do you recognize it as a safe place? And this will be temple or an ashram or call it whatever you like. Or what the Old Man called it, He called it an academy, where you are learning about yourself.

This is what is happening here. You are learning about yourself because the climate of this place is transcending consciousness and the only way that you will learn about yourself is by transcending yourself. Because, yourself is transcending consciousness! That is what yourself is. The only One self is transcending consciousness. It is what it is. Transcending what? Transcending itself, until it is itself; until it knows itself and recognizes itself, until it becomes itself. And therefore there is nothing to transcend. Until that event arises, (it is an event, an event of self realization), you need a safe place where in which to transcend yourself without fear.

In other words you need to realize, you are the cause of this world, and as you change your mind, the effects of your mind will change. That is what is happening to you. And it is happening to you to the point of transformation of the body, transformation of the form, transformation of the world which is not other than yourself. All I am doing is standing by because I know that sooner or later you will hear me. I am certain of it, because sooner or later everyone hears me. Sooner or later you awaken to the truth in you.

Until then I use everything. I know what you are up to in there, I know exactly what you are doing. I do not care about it. I am not concerned because I know that if you are with me, you have indicated an intention to awaken, and I am just standing by; I am just here as that transcending consciousness offering the solution that this is already over. Finally what I will say to you is that it is accomplished. Time is up. There is nothing left to do. We have done every thing that we came to do and now it is simply time to go home.

In the meantime , we give you a function, a purpose. But that purpose is designed to keep you in alignment with this transcending consciousness. If you wander off you will simply forget, that's all. So we need to provide you with a function or a purpose that is in alignment with transcending consciousness so you can transcend without fear, or better, you can be happy. What I offer you as a reflection, as transcending consciousness, as I assume your burdens, is happiness.

Now I don't know why is this so difficult for you except that you prefer the burden, to happiness. You would rather be burdened than be happy. Yes or no? All of your problems are solved! Everything! I promise you, all of your problems are solved. Do you accept? I mean it because I am the agency that is solving all your problems. Bring your burdens to me, because all of my burdens are light. Somewhere this will require faith. Faith in me, as transcending consciousness and there is where you run into a little bit of a problem because everyone is saying to you: why are you giving away your problems, why are trusting in someone else?" and all of the shit that is in the human mind and that is going nowhere and that really has nothing to offer you.

I am just trying to get you out of here. Believe me. I know the way and I know how much resistance there is to it because I have been through it, I've transcended it. I know exactly how it is! I know exactly what an ordeal it is. I know it is an ordeal. I know you need help, which is why I am here.

Each of you has had sufficient experience or sufficient evidence and you are aware that it is occurring in you. What I would like you to do with me now is to accept responsibility for returning. Don't blame it on me because we are still here. You have a tendency to do that. I know why I am here. Do you know why you are here? I know exactly why I am here. I am here on His behalf. I am here to serve. Why are you here? What are you doing here?

Now, what you have is a tendency to project the reason why you are here on to me. But I promise you, you will be mistaken. I am here on His behalf. I am here to serve, to help you and to remind you that you are also here on His behalf. You have a tendency to think that you are here for yourself and that is not entirely true, unless you realize that yourself, is Yourself. You are not here for yourself alone. You are here for the salvation of the world.

You are here to extend the light to offer the light that you have been given to those who are waiting for you. You have those that are assigned to you by Him. No one gets out of here without doing what He is asking them to do. No one gets out of here until you complete your assignment. O I am in no way attempting to judge. This is between you and God. I am not judging that in any way I am just offering this to you: ultimately you will realize there is only one self, acting on behalf of God.

Jesus Christ will teach this; All things ultimately sing praise to Him. All things sing praise to their Creator. And that is the experience I am attempting to offer you this weekend. And we are gathered here in his name and our only function and our only purpose is to remember Him, by reminding each other. That is called Holy Spirit. Your purpose is to remember Him, by reminding each other. That's when you become the agency. You become the Grace itself. You are here to remind one another of His love. That is why I am here and that's what I am attempting to offer you now.

My function, my particular talent is to embody that light, to embody that love, in other words, I am not looking to go any where. I am happy here embodying the alternative. That's what I do, It is what I am. It is my particular talent. My particular talent is to come and sit. Not to go anywhere, but to sit here with you as the embodiment of the alternative so that there is no where for you to run.

I said that from the beginning my intention here is to establish a physical place which is vibrating at the frequency of transition, so that you walk in, no matter where you are in time or within your cellular memory, you would be caught up in this frequency and experience the physicalness of the transition , the physical nature of the transition. In other words I will locate you wherever you are hiding within your body identity. You will resonate with me at this frequency of transition and ultimately you will demonstrate, transcending time and space altogether along with me. And there, you can't speak of that. There will be nothing left to return to.

We were watching the old man before session and he was reading from a scientific journal that is very conceptually thick, it was a scientific description (the latest video, you may want to watch it), talks all about death, the last 5minutes are so profound you don't know what to do. He is speaking about death. About the unreality of death, and he is reading from the scientific journal and they are attempting to explain, conceptually, the nature of what they now know is a holographic universe, all the physicist will offer this now because it is obvious.

The universe is holographic. In their attempts to describe it, they use all this language, and really what they are saying is the physical universe is impossible. That's all they say. And they use all sorts of language in order to make the physical universe possible while all the time they are saying it is impossible. They say that the physical universe is impossible because all of the matter itself can not be contain. It must collapse in onto itself in a black hole therefore there is no reason for the continuing existence of the physical universe. It is impossible. It is already collapsed into a black hole. It is an inevitable occurrence; it must collapse into a black hole.

My question is ; What are you waiting for? What is the physical universe? The physical universe is you. You are the physical universe! What are you waiting for? How do you get away with it? You examine it, you describe it, and you study it in order to avoid the inevitable collapse into the black hole. The old man called it a moment of darkness. There is a moment of darkness before the light. You call the moment of darkness death; we know it is a transition to light. We know that this is dead. The awareness of the world, or the physical nature or a physical self is what dead is.

All you need to hear from me is that the world, the physical universe, the physical construct in your own mind is not possible. And sooner or latter you will realize it and it will take the shape of you trying to solve the problem and failing. You will not be able to resolve this problem. Why? Because the problem does not exist! Your problem doesn't exist and why aren't you happy to hear it? Why won't you live with me in this final holographic image in happy recognition that the problem has already been solved? And that there is nothing that you can do about it. It has already been resolved.

The resolution is light, the resolution is love the resolution is joy the resolution is peace. So why would you be afraid of these things? I have no idea. I have no idea! Sooner or latter you let the problem go. The, you join me in this instant of transition, in this holy instant of transition and I am going to offer you physical demonstrations of what occurs in this Holly instant as this universe, collapses into a black hole which is an event in consciousness. It is an event in the single identity, the single self identity which is the transition from time to eternity. Can you hear that it is a physical occurrence and that it is occurring this weekend? The whole physical universe is collapsing in on you, here and now, in this place. There is nothing out there. There is no where to go, there is only standing still and allowing that event to occur.

Now what I've provided for you here is a safe place. It is already happening to you. It is happening to you incrementally according to your willingness to receive it, to accept it. All I am doing is standing still and allowing that process to accelerate. I love you guys. It is happening. Don't worry. You know we are joined. You know it and you have sufficient evidence that we are joined. There is only one of us. Now all I am offering you is the physical resolution. It is called awakening and it is physical. I love you guys. Thank you. Thank you. Just breathe now, just breath. It is occurring.

Depending in where you are with this you may feel some sense of disorientation, as you allow your attention to be lifted from your physical being, or you allow your physicalness to be resolved in light, which is the same. I am here with you. Don't worry, it looks good. At the very least what I like you to see is that you are not bound by your body. Or better that you can change your physical circumstances by changing your mind. I want you to be able to make an informed decision on whether or not you want to return, just as I've done. I've made an informed decision about returning. I decided to return. I made a decision to return.

The difference is, if there is a difference, I brought with me the memory of transition. That is what makes me a transcending consciousness. In other words, I remember leaving and I remember returning. How about you? You can remember leaving and returning any time you want to. It is going to require letting go of the apparent stability that you found here or that you think that you found here. That is all. That's it! The process is natural and occurs quite naturally.

What does Jesus say? "I am trying to loose your grip on the world". That is all. And it occurs quite naturally. And I am trying to assure you; you already made that decision or you would not be here with me, so what I am offering is a consciousness that is free to come and go. So you can make a decision as to whether you want to be here, ultimately as a free consciousness. So you look at the world and say : "Oh shit, this is pretty small; I am not a body I am free".

So you return on behalf of God . So the only reason to return is to free others, the way you have been freed. If you have not yet remembered leaving I can help you. I can help you to remember leaving. That is why I am here. Do you want to remember leaving? That is this weekend. I promise you, I promise you it is time. I promise you this weekend, if you stay with me and follow the program, you will remember leaving. And you may or may not decide not to return. That will be your decision.

I know that feels a little bit fearful. Are you a little afraid? Why not call it anticipation? Why call it fear? When you get a taste of what it means to leave, and there is no place to go, obviously we are not talking of leaving, but of remembering, when you get a taste of remembering that you are free, unbound by a physical body, there are very few of us that decide to return. It takes a particular quality, many of you have it. That is why you are here with me. You can think of this as a training program, you are in a mind training program, but not just mind training. You are in a MIND training program. You are being trained.

You are already free and you are being trained to be used by the Mind, wherever it is necessary, in whatever shape or form that is required. You know who you are. You are using me as a demonstration, and all I am doing is showing you; Hey, you can go anywhere that you are required, and still be free and not be trapped by the appearance that you are being sent to transform.

And the only reason you are here is because you have been sent by Him in order to translate this form, to light. You are here on an assignment. You are here on a mission. Everyone is here, you are here on a mission and you have an assignment. You are holy. You are not here. You already know that you are not here. You have been sent in order to translate this place to where you are or to whom you are. And you will fulfill that function or that assignment. This has already been resolved. You are already at home. You are in heaven. This has already been translated into light altogether, and you have been sent back. I know it is all a little bit out of reach but you are healing physically, and that is all a care about. And you are feeling it physically. There is much that you will understand later!

Thank you, I love you!
