

My self-image is redundant

November 8, 2008

You made it! You've come this far, there's no way you are not going to go all the way. Say to me, I'm going all the way. You just need a little assurance that you're on the right track. You have my assurance. Whatever path you're on, you're on the right path. Wherever you are is where you're supposed to be, I promise you.

The goal of the Course is not knowledge or understanding. The goal of the Course is peace of mind which is what you're really seeking – the peace of God. You're looking for release from the conflict associated with guilt. You're in the right place.

All things are working together for the good. It's going to be true whether you believe it or not. It's up to you to see that or to accept it. If it doesn't seem that way, your perspective is too narrow. Open up your perception a little bit and you'll see that all things are working together for the good. Everything that occurs to me is in my best interest. You're completely dependent on God.

Can you imagine what it would be like trying to determine what's in your best interests – that's what hell is. Should I stay or should I go? Everything I think I want binds me to an association. Until when? Until I no longer want it or until the end of time. When I no longer want it, that's the end of time. When I no longer want what? Whatever it is that you want. That's personal.

Whatever it is that you want will bind you to the association until the end of time or until you no longer want it. I want salvation – it's already yours. It's the one thing you don't have to wait for. Salvation is not in time. It's immediate – its always present. It's a release from the past. It's not dependent on time. What are you waiting for? It's here. It's given. It's in your relationship. It's in the Light of your relationship. That's why we're together.

It's no mistake that we are we together – why did you come here? I made a spontaneous decision to stay. You're here because this is the place that's been given you as a reflection of your determination to awaken at this time. Make no mistake about it – it's a gift. Why are you here? It's a miracle. This is the place you come to when you're seeking evidence that you're on the right track. You're on the right track. How do I know? You're here with me. What am I? The right track. I'm sure there's a joke in there somewhere.

The trouble I have is keeping you here, keeping you in the humour. The trouble I have is maintaining you in a frequency where you can laugh. Instead of struggling, you can laugh. You're given a taste of it, you understand what it is and you immediately invent a problem. There's no problem. Nothing's happened yet. Guys, nothing's happened yet! If you resist the temptation to formulate, you'll be fine.

If you resist the temptation to formulate, it will be formulated in Light, without sacrifice. Everything will be given you. I'm trying to purify your location, your dream – enlighten it, enliven it. It may not always look like what you want it to look like. Is that OK? You've been wrong up until now – what makes you think you'll be right this time? Let God determine the outcome and you'll be fine.

OK guys, listen – it's not a big deal what's happened. You've learned just how dependent on God you are. You can talk about it all you like, but you are absolutely and utterly and unequivocally dependent on God. I have no idea what's in my best interests. How would I even begin to determine what's in my best interests? God knows. What's in my best interests? Everything's in my best interests. Can you handle it? Only for an instant. You can't contain it. It's too joyful. Everything that occurs, occurs on my behalf. Wow! Go ahead, find some fault. What a story!

This is how you avoid salvation – you insist that you're still unique. That story is very small. Loss is small. The gates are wide open – you're being offered everything. You're being offered the whole universe, based on what it is you think you need. All I'm going to tell you is you're mistaken about it. What you think you need is not what you need. What do you need? You need nothing. Everything has been given you. You only need recognise that everything has been given you. I'm trying to show you the real world now. Everything has already been given you. You don't need anything. God is taking shape, as this. You're my beloved Son, exactly as you are - with whom I'm well-pleased.

You're dreaming a dream – it's a transitional dream. I'm trying to help you stabilise it. You don't leave here and forget. You don't want to do that anymore. You want to remember, yes? You want to remember that you've already transcended this – that the only reason you're here is to serve the transition. I'll remind you if you need a reminder.

Are you OK with service? It's not a dirty word is it? It's called humility. How can I serve? Don't expect a lot of fanfare – just breathe. Peace of mind is what I'm offering – the peace that's associated with doing God's work. You don't have to make decisions anymore. Is that OK with you? are you happy you don't have to make decisions anymore? What's disturbing your peace of mind? Making decisions. Every time you make a decision, you're at war with yourself – that's what a decision is.

A decision is a will unto yourself. it's a good T-shirt. What am I deciding between? Myself and myself. Good luck with that one – let me know how that turns out. Don't even try – you're wasting your time. If you are making a decision on your own, it's inevitable that you'll feel guilty – it's in-FUCKING-avoidable! Are you with me? You need help. OK – God is with you. step back, take a breathe and enjoy the resolution. Enjoy the decision that is being made for you. The decision being made for you is being made for God.

Listen to me. I'm not going to let you believe you can decide for God. You cannot decide for God. It's impossible. "I want to remember. I'm deciding for God". No, you're not. You're full of shit. It's not possible. But it is possible to allow God to decide for you. That's what I'm teaching. You see how easy that is? God has already decided for you. He already knows who you are. Come on – its up to you to allow that decision to be made. I'm not what I made of myself. Guys are you OK with me? I'm trying to make it clear for you.

If it's not effortless, something is wrong. If it's not easy, someone is wrong, and that someone is me.

You look really good my friend. You look incredible. You know why? You've learned to be quiet. The greatest lesson that you can learn. Let God speak. Thank you – its peace of mind. Father, thank you. From now on I will make no decisions on my own. Come on. That's how you stay in Light.

Where are you? How can I serve you? Here I am. Talk to me. Don't be afraid.

You're fine. You're right on target. Have you any idea how far you've come? You're cut loose. Your roots in this world have been cut. You're floating free. I'm not from here. Neither are you. Nothing's from here. Anyone else? Talk to me. Are you having experiences? Who's here? Everybody here? I'm just offering you the Light of communication. You want to read something? Everyone OK? Talk to me. Talk to me. Do you remember why you're here. Why are you here? You here to remember? Good. Good. Thank you. I'm just showing you who you are.

Question: I don't want to take any decision on my own but I'm not sure how to do it.

The best way to approach that (Jesus approaches it in the lesson): let me recognise that my problems have already been solved. It appears as if the problem comes first so it looks like decision has to be made. That's the illusion. There is no decision that has to be made because the decision is being made for you. In other words, you're coming from the solution, from the Answer. You're bringing the answer with you. That's better – it's nice to be heard. And that answer will adjust the conditions so that a decision is unnecessary. Did you hear that? The Light in you adjust the conditions, so that a decision is not necessary.

No decision is necessary because, in the Light, everything is as it should be. Nothing needs to be decided. Nothing needs to change. In the Light, everything is as it should be – working together for the good. Nothing needs to change. See if you can hear me. You are so used to solving the problem, that it's difficult for you to understand that all your problems have already been solved. Its what you have been resisting until now. You have no problems. The problem is an invention. You call it the ego. Its all bullshit!

Say to me I've been a liar from the beginning. You need to hear that. From the moment you showed up, all you do is tell lies. And then you run into me and you can't lie. It's not possible to lie. I'm looking right through you and I see that you're telling a lie. This place is a lie. I'm not fooled by it. I'm coming from the solution. I come from above, from outside the frame. Now that's how I speed up your time. You can still solve problems, but you'll feel a little foolish. You'll feel a little redundant. Say to me, my self-image is redundant. That's a good T-shirt. Why isn't anyone writing these down?

It's hard to keep a straight face. It's hard to pretend that you're still asleep. You look at one another and you see that this is a lie. Did someone ask a question? I think I just answered a question.

From Cristina:

"I was reading the Incorruptible Body and I fell asleep, and for a moment I dreamed and woke up and I remembered. But I was dreaming that I was in the middle of the beach. There were a lot of people and that beach represented the world. And I was looking at the beach, the image, and I didn't recognise anything. I observed it and I knew perfectly well that it was false.

It appeared that I had the sensation that that vision was going to be taken away from me, and for a moment I found myself crying and there was a dark girl that took me out of there. And I woke up this morning very grateful for the dream because for a moment I felt completely empty. And I woke up asking God. There is nothing to fear for feeling completely empty. It is only when I can listen in silence.

And when I sat down in session I felt the session as a birthing. We are in the vision and the session I could really laugh, giving away all the ideas about what I thought of the dream of salvation, of everything. And I was able to do a gesture and include myself as something false. Because in the dream I didn't include myself. Anything I think I am and I need to be completely in that purification, in that void.

And it was shown to me so beautifully this morning and I was reminded to stay in the rebirthing. Don't touch anything. Everything is perfect as it is. We are that one child. And in that moment it was when I could stand still – no opinions, no judgement, nothing. I laughed at the insistence of believing that I'm separate. Thank you. And I also felt a big release. That there is no such thing as a body. It's a thought that is already with me and it's perfect. I keep that in my mind with very little idea I think love is. A very big door will open. I had the idea this morning of being completely trusting and to receive everything. There's nothing to hide, nothing to contract for. There is only one relationship. And for me that's the Christ child. Thank you. I love you very much.”

You guys keep catching glimpses. Would you accept that your problem has already been solved and it had nothing to do with you. Can you accept that? This is the frequency that's being offered you. Jesus calls it the real world. Everything's already been given you. Nothing needs to change because nothing's gone wrong. Can you see that that's a way of being? I'm trying to locate you prior to your problem. I'm trying to fix you in the solution. Good I just saw you see that. The answer is always going to be love. The answer's always love – prior to the problem. Are you OK? Can you let it be that's simple?

Now this is the lesson I wanted to teach and we'll end it here. Listen. Love is one. Love is singular. That's your answer. Your problem is making a decision based on a distinction in your mind. There is no answer to that because the distinction is false. There is no distinction. I'm trying to locate you prior to the distinction. That's where the Light is. Are you OK? You haven't got any problems. Arguing with me is what the crucifixion is. Agreeing with me is what the resurrection is. I love you guys.

It CANNOT be difficult to realize that faith MUST be the opposite of faithLESSness. But the difference in how they operate is less apparent, though it follows directly from the fundamental difference in what they ARE. Faithlessness would always LIMIT AND ATTACK; faith would remove ALL limitations, and MAKE WHOLE. Faithlessness would destroy and SEPARATE; faith would unite and HEAL. Faithlessness would interpose illusions between the Son of God and his Creator; faith would remove ALL obstacles that SEEM to rise between them. Faithlessness is wholly dedicated to illusions; faith wholly to truth.

PARTIAL DEDICATION IS IMPOSSIBLE. Truth is the ABSENCE of illusion; illusion the ABSENCE of truth. Both cannot BE together, nor perceived in the SAME PLACE. To dedicate yourself to BOTH, is to set up a goal forever impossible to attain. For PART of it is sought through the body, THOUGHT OF as a means for seeking out reality through ATTACK. While the OTHER part would HEAL, and therefore calls upon the mind, and NOT the body.

“Now let a new perception come to me.”

“Father, there is a vision which beholds all things as sinless, so that fear has gone, and where it was is Love invited in. And Love will come wherever it is asked. This vision is Your gift. The eyes of Christ look on a world forgiven. In His sight are all its sins forgiven, for He sees no sin in anything He looks upon. Now let His true perception come to me, that I may waken from the dream of guilt and look within upon my sinlessness, which You have kept completely undefiled upon the altar to Your holy Son, the Self with Which I would identify.”

Let us today behold each other in the sight of Christ. How beautiful we are! How holy and how loving! Brother, come and join with me today. We save the world when we are joined. For in our vision it becomes as holy as the Light in us.

Carmen: “My only function is to forgive and be happy. And when judgements sometimes arise to be able to catch them. I know that my function is to be there before they arise (Josh: good for you) to allow your grace to descend. And that’s my prayer. And thank you Father for all your gifts and all my brothers. I love you so much.”

It is accomplished. You can rest because it is accomplished. The peace of God is shining in you now. Everyone’s welcome here. The doors are open. We have an open admissions program. Admitted, but only freely. There’s Greta. Thank you. I love you. I love you. Someone play “I Can See Clearly Now”...
