

The Need to Awaken is an Illusion

February 11, 2009

Let's see if you can hear this: the place, the space, where love seems to have an opponent, that space is an illusion.

That space does not exist! There is no opposition to love. One more time, I'll say it in a different way: The opposition to love is a lie.

If there appears to be an opposition to love, that place is an illusion. You are a little closer...

The battle itself, love against fear, love against hate... that battle is an illusion, therefore awakening itself is an illusion.

Did you hear me? Awakening is an illusion! The need to awaken is an illusion.

There has never been a time, a place or space where love has been absent. That place is an illusion.

Why does it seem to persist? Why do you seem to persist? It is the same question. The battle and you are the same. I just told you there is nothing to overcome. There is no battle going on.

Nando, do you hear me? The battle is an illusion. There is no battle going on.

Why does it persist? Why do you persist?

The first thing you do when you come in is talk to me about your struggle. It is the first thing you do. Yes, or no? You start talking, and the first thing you say is I am struggling. Yes, or No?

Am I in the right place? The only way to overcome the struggle is by the realization that the struggle does not exist. And how does that help you? Who does that help? If it helps you say; that helps me. If that doesn't help me, say: That does not help me.

The moment you say it, it helps you. Because it is what I just said; not being helped is what the illusion is. I am not receiving the help I need..... have another look!

You are receiving exactly as much help as you want. Exactly! Do you hear me? No more no less! So what do you have to complain about? Nothing. You bet!

That is what I do. I reveal the illusion. That is why you all hired me! Why did you hire me? To teach you English?

I come at a very high price. You can hardly afford me. It costs you everything you've got! I love you guys.

The beggar pays exactly as much as the rich man for enlightenment..... the rich man give up his money, the beggar gives up his lack.

I love you guys.... If you don't make that a t-shirt, I am leaving! I am tired of this. Do you think it is easy to come up with these? Try it some time.

You don't think the lack of the beggar is just as dear to him as the money to the rich man? It is exactly the same thing! The beggar will never give up his lack, it is an extraordinary thing, isn't it?

The poor will always be with you, Jesus says. Of course!

The same is true for anything, it is obvious. The sickness must be dear to you, or you would let it go.

Do you think that the laws of God are not in operation? Yes? Don't be ridiculous. There is no place where the laws of God are not in operation! You are getting exactly what you want.

Oh, but I've got to overcome my...lack. It is impossible. You can not overcome it. You can't do anything, you can't make a move on your own, you can't breathe on your own. You are completely dependent on God.

I am just trying to show you how absolute that statement is. You are completely dependent on God.

What was yesterday's lesson again?

God goes with me wherever I go.

You think that means that He walks along side of you. He is the very context in which you walk, wherever it is you are going.

I am talking about a vertical axis. We don't really walk alongside each other on the way home. That is not how it works. How do we walk? Anyone? How is it that we walk to God? Within each other!

Does anyone hear me? Do you see the difference? Alongside is horizontal, within is vertical. Come on! Yes, or no?

You are looking at the transparency of form if you want to join with me. Form is an illusion. It is transparent. I am within you, you are within me and that is how we face God. It is called forgiveness if you want to know.

What is forgiveness? I am within you. There is nothing to forgive. Nothing has happened. I am within you. The thing you think is outside of you is an illusion. You call it a special love relationship.

Say; I am a guy on a cushion and call it a Guru. That is a special love relationship. Ok... I am going to make mine.... And call it the Master Teacher. Do you think that is not the same thing? Come on!

If it is outside of you, he is special. Are you ok guys? I am inside you, I am inside you. You are inside of me. That is how we face God. Not any other way.

I need your help, obviously, in this provision, and share this vision with me. It is the only way we face God. We can't do it any other way!

You will have to open your spiritual sight a little bit, dust off your forehead, and have a look around.

This is the evolution of the species if you need to look at it. Big deal! It is not a big deal!. The specie is evolving to what it is already.

Are you ok with me? I am doing my best to teach you. What has been giving you? The knowledge that you are mind, in mind, wholly and purely mind!

It takes some constancy to identify with that. Yes, or no?

How much do you want it? How much do you need it? If you don't need it you won't see it, not because it is not there, but because you are denying it. Don't make a big deal out of this. It is very simple. When you want to see it, it is obvious, it is evident.

Above all else I want to see

Above all else, above all else I want to see. The only way you can see is above all else!

How do you see? Above all else! It is called vision.

What is all else? The illusion.

Why? because there is nothing else.

I love you guys? Are you starting to hear me?

What is an illusion? An illusion is that which is not there. How long are you going to study it? The thinker, yes? I am going to sit and study it. There is nothing occurring there. Nothing!

I am going to face God now. Even if there was nothing else, even if the place that I am leading you to, doesn't exist, even if that were so; why would you continue in the illusion? Having realized, having recognized it is so, why would you continue? Guys? I am trying to gather you in now... Are you with me? why would you continue in a dream having recognized it is a dream; Having become aware, why would you associate with that? This is an important question, because now you have to answer it.

Where your attention goes, you go. Do you hear me? You are just following your own tail. There is nothing you can do. It is God's law; cause and effect are not apart. If you project a thought, you will be there, because you are the cause. Did you hear what I just said? You are responsible for what you see. You are only looking at thoughts in your own mind. They are effects and you will be there as long as you maintain the distance. Yes, are you hearing me?

I am trying to help you collapse cause and effect. I am the cause of this and I am not separate from this, because this is my effect. Are you ok with that?

It is called: Shiva and Shakti if you want a definition of it, but how long are you going to study it?

Anyone ready to go home? I am here...I am here with you. I have no interest in being a body, I am looking for you. Do you want to leave here? Do you want to leave the world?

I don't mean to frighten you, I am just trying to show you what you are up against. Guys here there is no compromise. You are either with me or against me. There is no world. It is an illusion. You are rather with me, or against me, and if you are against me, I am going to deny you because you don't exist.

Listen to me, because we are in the final stages now, we are transitioning and you are welcome to come along, but if you deny that I am transitioning, I will deny you. You don't exist. You listen to me: I am trying to help you stabilize this transitional idea: You are mind, you are not a body, you are associating within mind. Are you ok with this, or is it too advanced for you?

Fuck this place. It is too small. I am trying to help you speed it up, you are not a body, you can't die. Death is an illusion. You are not going to be able to leave like that. If you are waiting to die...you are wasting your time. Now, why isn't anyone writing that one down? Fuck you guys, I am going to make a lot of money with my own business... If you are waiting to die, you are wasting your time. And you can look at that anyway you choose. The message is clear: Death is an illusion and you are not going to succeed.

And what is going to happen? Nothing is going to happen. Absolutely nothing!. Do you think something is happening now? If you think something is happening... it is death. That is the only thing that is happening.

Love doesn't happen. Love is. Love is the context in which everything is happening. !

If you have found one another, the next step is simple. Because you look at each other and we laugh, we see. We exit here laughing. When we look at other, we laugh! We get the joke finally.

What is the joke? That we were separated, that is the joke!

Do you want to go home? Now is just a matter of looking up. Once you find it, look up! That's all I am doing. What am I doing? Looking up, away from the world! That is called ascension, if you need to define it.

So, here I am, look up; just look up. It's called the sky of light. There is nothing there, except there is no opposition. There isn't even a crown that has to crack. There is none of that. It is quite open to infinity.

What is out there? Come out and have a look! What is out there? The Real World has no buildings, where people walk around aimlessly shopping...

Does anyone need help? OK. Teach... or dance, I don't know.... Do whatever it takes to forget about yourself!

How do I remember God? By forgetting about myself! Did you hear me?

Why do you think that dancing works? Because you forget about yourself! Why does service works finally? Because you forget about yourself!..... That is good, that is close...that is better.

If you keep calling attention to yourself, you will be bound to that relationship that is called specialness; it is in the book that was given you, The Course In Miracles. It is in the chapter that no one likes to read anymore. It is called: Special Relationship. No one wants to read it because it makes everyone feel guilty!... I am too advanced to look at my special relationships.

I love you guys.

If you are identifying with the body you will assume that you are in a special relationship. We are going to judge each other's addictions... that is really the high of spiritual... yes: My addictions are of a higher frequency, of a higher caliber than yours..... You are addicted to sex, I am addicted to suffering... I am more Saint, than you are, I am going to whip myself.... See how saint I am? What a place, what a place! Come on!

You have found each other, you should be very happy! It is a shit place, alright, but we found each other. Now the way is simple! You are going to pack and try to find company within the context of denial and suffering?

Oh my God, is right. You have no idea how far you have come. You are on fast track. I love you guys, I love you, I love you!

You are just letting go of yourself. I know how difficult it is. You love what you have made, you enjoy it... there is nothing wrong with that. You did fine. You all did very well by yourselves. Your Father is very proud....ok?

You don't have to impress Him anymore. Your father is very impressed.... You did a good job my son..... I love you guys.

I found you! You guys have good hiding places! I love you guys. You look beautiful.

My ways appear to be unorthodox, but listen, drastic conditions require drastic measures.

We were watching the news this morning. Very funny, and a perfect example of what I am talking about; Obama, the president, is going into small towns and having this reunions with people. The people's president, He walks in and a guy( I love this guy), he jumps inn and says: Mr President I just want to say thank you for being here, thank you for taking the time of your day to come be with us!, but he said it with such enthusiasm and he is so obviously thrill to be in the presence of the President!.... that is exactly how I would like to see you approach God. Did you hear me? Show a little enthusiasm!

He is here with you, He is come to see you... why aren't you showing enthusiasm?... Father, thank you for taking part of the day to come be with me, I know you have a lot going on, I know you are busy..... Father, thank you for being here!

Thank you for all your help. I mean it. Thank you for everything you have done. I know it hasn't been easy, I do the best I can in an impossible situation.

Emilio can hardly believe He is enlightened! It is a little embarrassing at first, to see what you have been keeping from yourself. Oh shit! Are you ok? I do what I can. If you need my help, ask me... I am right here, right here.

And how do I burn this residual Karma? Depend on God. You are certainly not going to do it by giving your attention to the karma. You burn it up by giving your attention to God. God will burn it up for you! Are you talking about the fires in Australia? That's exactly what I am talking about. What did you think that was?

But it looks like suffering. Look again! It is just a thought. I know this is fearful, I know because this is the final step. That is what I am offering you, this guide in front of you. He has chosen me and I am offering you the final step. Is that ok with you?

This is the final correction, and not everyone is ready to stay here at the threshold, but if you drop back from here, you won't drop back very far, so be grateful.

In other words, you won't suffer as much, even if you decide to return. Be grateful! Now if you intend to continue with me, I can upgrade you to first class and serve you lobster and....comfortable seats; I mean, if you have come this far, you deserve to travel first class. Thank you for that gift.

Shall we move forward from here? Express your intention to me. I am just a context... How can I serve you? How would you like this to look? I can do that for you, I can do whatever you like. I am the context.

All I am telling you is that whatever that is, it won't satisfy you, ultimately. It is not really what you are looking for. Do you hear me?

What you are really looking for is GOD. Good. That is the final step. Jesus says: It is made easy for you because you found one another.

I am doing the sermon on the mount: I am standing on the mountain and I am looking at you:

Love One Another, look at one another, we are going home. I couldn't have done it without you. I really love you. I couldn't have found God without you. Just rest. If you remember that what is below (in time) is always useless, that will really help you. It is not going to serve you. You just come back to this place again and are asked to take this decision with me. Are you ok? You want to make the decision? Make it. Let me see you make it. Make the gesture.

How do you make the gesture? Guys.... Make the gesture. Come on, make it...

Father, only You! That changes everything. See how the texture changes? You are never left without help. You are not alone. There is light all around you.

MAKE THE GESTURE!..... "Only You, Father, only you."

" But I am afraid of failure" ..... Father, only you. You can't fail. It is impossible to fail. It is accomplished.

Everyone: Father, Father, Only You. If a thought arises; Father.... Only you!

I am wrong about everything. Thank you. Father...thank you!

The lie is becoming intolerable. I have no tolerance for the lie.

That's all the Spanish you needed to learn.

You'll be ok. I am not going anywhere.

Say to me: The lie is that I know anything. That is the lie. You can't know about, you only know being. About implies two. I am getting you to about face. Do you get it?

Turn around and look at me.

Say to me: I am wrong about everything.

No more. I have no need, no desire..... It is only one thought away.

There is only one mind, and that mind is already at home.

Father, only you when I close my eyes, only you when I open my eyes, only you! There are no differences. There are no differences!

Say it: On earth as it is in heaven, "por favor Padre"...

That is called integration.

True Love is as bright an integration factor as you can find in all the Universe!

Thank you, I love you....namaste
