

You are not sick, You are in Love

October 11, 2008

Say to me: Truth is correcting the error is my mind.....

You have invited me in. Here I am, now what would you do with me? Yes, what are you going to do me? Here I am, you asked me to come, you asked to show up....I am here now what would you do with me?

How are you going to use me?

What I can demonstrate for you, I want to see how serious you are, what I can demonstrate for you is that you are home.

I can demonstrate that you ARE home. But in order for me to do that you are going to have to allow me to use what you bring to me...yes? You already brought yourself to me. You already brought me an idea of yourself. Yes?

You are going to have to allow me to use that idea in order to show you, that you are already home.

That's call a transitional identity.

I don't know how else to do it. I need to use what you bring to me or else it won't work.

I can't really show you something else! I have to use what you bring to me.

Why can't I show you something else? Any one, who wants to take a step with this? You are going to fucking get this with me?

Why can't I show you something else, why? Because you are scared shitless!

You are shitting in your pants, and you are asking me to show you something else. I can't do it, it is impossible!

Is there something else? Of course there is, there is always something else, always. But you can't see it because you are afraid of it. Alright! I don't know how else to teach it! I can show you that what you brought to me requires only recognition. It doesn't really requires healing...healing is impossible. Healing is impossible. There is no way that something real need to be healed. Nothing needs to be healed! You don't need a healing to be healed, you are healed!

All I can do is show you that whatever you bring to me... you are that, and you are that wholly! You already have that idea about yourself. How can I help you? I can't change your mind about you. it is not possible, even God can't change your mind. God is not trying to change your mind. God is trying to show you that you are whatever you think you are. Not more, no less!

Alright, now, are you ready for more? It is up to you. You are taking that decision...let it be simple and you will be fine...

Say to me: I am doing this to myself.

What the fuck do you suppose Jesus means when He says, you are doing this to yourself? What do you suppose He means? That He means something else?

What does He means? He means you are doing it to yourself!

I love you guys. I am trying to help you through this. There is nothing wrong, nothing is wrong..... if you think there is something wrong you are wrong. Nothing is wrong, only you. Everything is exactly as it should be. You are getting the results of your own mind.

So don't bring your sickness to me and ask me to heal it...I really don't know what you are talking about! I have no idea what you are talking about. I don't know what that is...you are calling it sickness, but I don't know what you are talking about. There is not such thing as that. You are not sick. You are whole and perfect! You are calling that sickness, and that is what the illusion is; you are looking right at God and saying: that is sick and then you want me to help you. I can't help you, there is nothing I can do...you are mistaken. Nothing is wrong!

I don't know how else to teach it. I am trying my best to show you what a transitional body does. What a transitional frequency is!

Say to me: I thought I was sick, but I was really in love. You are not sick, you are in love!

You want me to sing the song for you? Sing a song, will you? ...you are not sick you are in love.

"but I hurt here"Yeah, you are in love, that is what love feels... Stop defining it and you will be fine!

God is found you exactly where you are, and he is offering you the solution.

You keep promising me a world without sickness, you promised me again this morning.....I am very happy to return to a world without sickness, yes or no? You are very happy to return to a world without sickness....alright...is that what this is? You are making the decision.

"I want a world without sickness, but I still feel sick"

That my fiends, is not a world without sickness! If you are still defining it as sickness, I don't know what to do for you, I don't know how to help you!

A world without sickness is a world that you are generating from the idea that sickness is impossible. Can you hear me or not?

You are demonstrating that. You say; I want to demonstrate, I am with you, I want to help you...

Are you ready for a world without sickness or is that too frightening for you?

Up until now you've been scared shitless with that idea, it is to frightening...

"Oh shit, a world without sickness, a world without suffering...I don't know if I can handle that..I enjoy a little conflict in the morning.."

Come on, you are demonstrating to me know. Maybe you can get it; I am really not here, If you want to think of me as something, you can think of me as your Christ Child and you will be very close to the truth, it is the best I can do.

Now, you have told me; I have a place, I have a provision and in this provision, sickness is impossible and you said.... Come, come join me in this provision. Come on you've prayed....

I am the answer, I've come because you told me you that you were ready for a world without sickness, I have no other reason for being here; guys, I don't want to be here, unless this is the place that you promised me. I don't want to come into a world of sickness, I have no interest in that.

Jesus is going to teach it in the last lesson: Truth is going to correct all errors in your mind.

I don't want to come into a world of sickness, I have no interest in that. If you ask me to come into the world and you insist that sickness is real, you will not find me, I will not be there. Is that ok with you? If you look for me I won't be there; not because I am not there but because I am not sick.

See if you can hear me! I am you, I am you preparing a place for you. I am preparing a place for you. You said, "I want a world without sickness". Did you not say that to me this morning?

I am here in that world. Why are you not seeing me? Because you are not here with me, you are in some other world. You are in a world wherein sickness is still possible.

How are you going to see me? Can you hear me a little bit?

I am offering you the world that you are asking me, but you have to find me.

Now you are talking. Of course you need help. You can't there on your own, because you think you are on your own. You are not on your own. Everyone is here with you. Everyone is here with you. We are doing this together. We are gathering together with that intention. Take a breathe... now, I'll help you through it.

That world is here with you. The world you are seeking is here with you, it is in you. You are responsible for it. That is what Lylian taught this morning. You are responsible for the real world. Yes, just as you were responsible for the illusion. You are responsible now for the real world.

Come on, you are being kicked out, you have been promoted, you graduated. You have a new Universe now that you must rule. You are responsible for it!

How are you going to rule it? Are you going to allow sickness into your world? You are making the decision. Do this with me....I am not going to do any more of these intensives. It is too difficult!

You ask me to take it on, I take it on physically and you turn away, you go back to your business as usual, fuck you, I am not going to do this any more, it hurts too much. You made a promise....you told me: I am done with sickness, come join me. I am here; make the decision now with me.

We will start right her; There is no world. The world is an illusion. Of course it is an illusion! I am doing it to myself.

I am not really concern about that, the world is an illusion and so do you. Now what you are afraid off, obviously, is the disappearance of the world. Yes or no? Of course, you are scared shitless of that. Of course! I am here to help you but you have to bring yourself to me, in order for me to help you.

You have to allow me to show you, that the self that you brought me is transitional. It is not who you are, yet it is who you think you are, and I am going to use who you think you are in order to show you who you are.

That is transition! You are a transitional being. A human being is transitional... you are moving through layers of conciseness, moving toward the truth of you.

I am not a body I am free. That is true; I am not a body I am free.

But I don't know how it helps you while you are still aware of yourself as a body. I have to show you that your body is transitional.

How do I show you? it is changing all the time. It is changing all the time... it is not stationary, it is not static; it is changing all the time , in other words: you are not really sick, you are transitioning.

Say to me: I am not sick I am transitioning. Better, much better

That is all that is happening!

And this reflection now, this provision that is being given you is your transitional being. It is what your transitional being is. It is your new vehicle.

Someone is looking for a new vehicle...Michael, you are looking for a new vehicle? I am offering a new vehicle..... you old vehicles are a little bit antiquated! You have out grown them, that is why you feel sick!

I am asking you to dawn your light body if you ready to do that with me.

Play color blind again, they never hear it when I play it.
I love you guys. I am here with you.

That is your only problem... you are color blind....you things in black and white....you are blind to the colors that are all around you.....

Father, thank you!

Everything is given you...you lose nothing. It is given back to you wholly. Even your body is given back to you. That is my whole teaching. That is physical resurrection! Nothing is taking, not even your body. Nothing is take, everything is given you wholly! It is called a happy dream, in case you are wondering.... A happy world! I am trying to help you. There are miracles all around you! You can't see the miracles if you insist in stubbing your toes.

There is nothing to be afraid off. Nothing to be afraid off, you are in transition. Just breathe....when are you going to learn to breathe, finally? Just breathe; you know there is nothing else you can do?

All you can do is breathe and surrender, there is nothing else you have to do; there is nothing else you NEED to do. Everything else has already been done for you. You have been shown the way out. Can you hear me? You are being shown by grace the way out of the hell of your own insanity!

The solution has been given you it has been given you in the form where in which you already find yourself.

You keep asking for more. You won't receive more until you are satisfied with what you have been given. See if you can hear that! That is a little bit of maturity for you. You keep asking for more, but you don't accept what has been given to you.

"I want more....I want more...I want more!" You are like a child, you keep demanding more.

It's ok, it's alright!

A little bit of gratitude goes a long way. Rather than ask for more, why don't you demonstrate right now. Do you want to demonstrate? Demonstrate what you have been given.

What have you been given?

Brother: Freedom, love , release of old ideas..

Josh: have you been given that in a form that you can receive? You have been given that, and you are aware that you have been given that? There is nothing to reach for, it is right there, it is clear, it is plain to see. yes or no?

Any one else?

Brother: I have been given trust, certainty, and peace.

Josh: All in a form that you can receive and understand, yes?

Any one else? I am trying to correct the error in your mind. There is an error in your mind, and that error is that you haven't been given exactly what you have asked for. That is the error,, that is the lie.

You have been given and you are receiving exactly as you have asked for. You have been given a correction which is immediate. I am responsible for what I see. That is the correction.

Being in the awareness, sustaining the awareness that what I am responsible for what I see, is called ; atonement, healing.

The light is in you.

You have a tendency to think that nothing is happening, and yet all around you are the miracles, are the evidence that you have been given everything. Look around you, all around you; all these Holy ones that are present here with you, is the evidence that you have been given everything. They are right here. You didn't have to go somewhere else. This is where it is. This is where the translation occurs. Guys, I don't know how else to teach it. This is where it is occurring. It is occurring right here. It is not occurring somewhere else. This is what is being translated.

Where is the light? It is right here, not anywhere else. It is not in some plane of existence. It is right here. This must be translated because you are denying this. Yes, stand still and watch it transform. This is everything that I am offering.

I keep giving you glimpses of the other side, glimpses of light, of love. Now it is up to you to bring that with you, into your memory, this is a memory, bring that light with you into this memory, and witness its transformation.

What is the transforming agency? You are. You are the transforming agency; you are the light of the world.

Would you stand still with me a moment, and demonstrate you are the light of this world?

Good, don't stop....

Father, father, I will there be light!

Thank you.

That is why we are together, in order to remind one another that only the light is true. Only the light is real, everything else is an illusion.

Thank you.

You still think somewhere; that you can escape by dying. It is not possible. No one dies!

Listen...this is from Jesus, He wants to read the lesson:

107. Truth Will Correct All Errors In My Mind.

This is the correction that is being given you right now. Are you going to read this with me, are you going to allow Jesus to make the correction for you?

What can correct illusion but the truth? And what are errors but illusions that remain unrecognized for what they are?

I am upset because I see something that is not there.

Where truth can enter, errors disappear. They merely vanish, leaving not a trace by which to be remembered. They are gone because without belief, they have no life.

What I am trying to offer you here, from this morning,; My mind is all powerful, I am animating this conditional idea in which I find myself. I am responsible for it, I animated it.

...and so they disappear to nothingness, returning whence they came. From dust to dust they come and go, for only truth remains.

Ok, so here you are, here you are, are you here with me....here you are... you are still aware of a body idea, yes? How can I show you that it is an illusion, how can I demonstrate you that your sickness is an illusion? Your sickness is an illusion, because your body is an illusion.

How can I demonstrate that? How can I demonstrate it for you? Truth is making the correction. God is making the correction, He is doing it right now, and He is doing it for you individually, wherever you are in your association with yourself....

Say to me: Not now is what time is. That is my whole teaching. Not now is what time is. This is the time I choose to awaken.

What is happening to you right now? It is occurring right now, and it is keeping pace with your transition. In other words; you are transitioning, and you are afraid of the transitioning, you have already admitted it, so time is keeping pace with you. You are transitioning at a pace that is not going to cause you too much fear.

I'll loose you , you will run away, you are too afraid. You couldn't handle it. You would run away. We are keeping pace with you. We are right here with you, we are showing you along the way, demonstrations, in a form that you can receive and understand. You are not a body, you are free.

How do you know it? Because your pictures are changing; Gabriela.

Obviously you are in a position where you have to make a decision. You are always making a decision. How do you want to proceed? You are telling me! I am not making that demand!

How would you proceed? What would you do now?

You have two choices: You can drop back down into your familiar identity, in other words, you can wake up dead again, or you can continue in this transition: you continue to see the evidence of the presence of grace that is offering you the solution.

Oh, but I afraid....

I know you are, I am here with you, and I am offering you the evidence that you need. The light is with you. You brought the light with you when you came. There is nothing to be afraid of. You are generating the entire sequence... you are responsible for what you see. You are getting the result of your own mind. Don't worry about it, choose God, and everything will be given you.

I don't know how else to get around it. Or else you are going to fall back into the shit again and you would want me to pull you out.... I am tired of it, I don't want to do this anymore with you. I keep showing you the way out, the light that is in you, and you keep falling back into the old ideas of yourself...I don't know what to do....I can read you the lesson, I am willing to do that, and I promise you this; your dream is being adjusted. There is a lot of light and the light is making the adjustments in your dream.

That is really all you need to know. What do I teach? Breathe and be happy, breathe and be grateful, I don't know what else to teach. Breathe, God is with you, He is doing everything. You need do nothing. You need do nothing. He is doing everything. Everything is being given you. Stand still and witness the evidence that you have been given everything, and stop complaining. Stop denying the miracle.

Now you made me this promise this morning, and within two hours you had forgotten it. I came back inn and you are doing the same thing you were doing for the last 10.000 years. Nothing is changed! You are denying the light. Stop doing that. Please stop doing that. You have been giving sufficient evidence that the light is with you. Begin to assert the light, begin to identify with the light. I need your help with this or else I can't stay here, I won't stay here. I have no interest in this place... I am only interested in you. I am only interested in the light in you; that is all I care. I don't care about your body identity! I don't even know what that means, you are not a body.

I can use your help. I can use all the help I can get. You see how easy it is to drop right back in? Everyone is depending on you. You told me, you were going to do this with me.

Brother: Only be serving can I remember

Josh: That is the answer, that is the key, that is why you are here; You are not here for yourself! You are not yourself... you are not what you think you are. You are here for the salvation of the world! That's who you are! Thanks guys, I love you.

We are going to let Jesus finish this now..... listen.....

.....Can you imagine what a state of mind without illusions is?

...Can you imagine with me now what a state of mind, without illusions is?

.....How would it feel? Try to remember where there was a time, perhaps a minute, maybe even less when you were certain nothing came to interrupt your peace: when you were certain you were loved and safe. Then try to picture what it would be like to have that moment extended to the end of time and to eternity. Then let the sense of quite that you felt be multiplied a hundred times, and then be multiplied another hundred more.

And now you have a hint, no more than just the faintest intimation of the state your mind will rest in when the truth has come. Without illusions there could be no fear, no doubt an no attack. When truth has come, all pain is over....

What do you think?

...When truth has come all pain is over, for there is no room for transitory thoughts and dead ideas to linger in your mind. Truth occupies your mind completely, liberating you from all beliefs in the ephemeral.

Why are you afraid of this, why are you afraid of the truth? Why are you afraid of the truth?....

They have no place because the truth has come, and they are nowhere. They can not be found, for truth is everywhere forever, now.

When truth has come it does not stay a while to disappear or change to something else.

When truth has come it does not stay a while to disappear or change to something else. Stop doing that with me, stop pretending that you don't know. You have been given everything. You know perfectly well...exactly as much as I know. Daryl, you know exactly as much as I know. You know the truth, the truth has come. Nothing changes, truth doesn't change. It stays exactly as it always was. It is just waiting for you to demonstrate it. You keep reasserting, what? The illusion the falsity! Stop doing that with me, stop it! Please, I really need your help, sustaining this: The truth has come, it will not leave you know. It is not going to change into something else. I love you guys, you are closer than you know. Truth will correct all errors in mi mind. It is up to me to allow it inn.

You guys look better, and better all the time, you are putting on immortality, I am watching you do it. You are wearing immortality....

Say to me: The immortal are those who deny death. That is you. Deny death and you are immortal it is just an idea in your mind. Alright, I love you guys, you are getting it....

.... It does not shift and alter in its form, or come and go and come again. It stays exactly as it always is and was, to be depended on in every need, and trusted with a perfect trust in all the seeming difficulties and the doubts that the appearances the world presents engender.

Do you see what I am offering you? I am offering.... We call this a happy dream. That is what I am offering you. Listen to the next sentence.

....All of your difficulties, will merely blow away, when truth corrects the errors in your mind.

All of your problems will simply blow away, they will be gone.... They will disappear, when you allow the truth to correct all errors in your mind.

... When truth has come it harbors in its wings the gift of perfect constancy and love which does not falter in the face of pain, but looks beyond it, steadily and sure.

You got it? This is key now for you at this point in the transition, trust me with this: When pain arises, look right through it. Don't give it attention, don't look at it, giving energy in the attempt of sharing it with anyone.. Stop doing that with me! Look through it, look past it, it will disappear. When you appear to be suffering, look passed it to the light that you have already been giving, and the pain will disappear! That is a practice. I am asking you to do that with me. You have a tendency, you still may be a little immature at this, you have a tendency when pain arises to say: See, I told you so, pain is real...I can prove it....

Don't do that with me, please, please! You have invited me in.... Can I offer something to you? This frequency is infinitely delicate, you have invited me in, I am here with you...please, please, will you, please?

Transcend the tendency to attack me, please! Every time you make pain real, you are attacking me.

Who am I? I am the Christ in you, I am your perfection, I am here to show you that you are whole and perfect. Invite me in. I am happy to be here. You have to make the place welcoming for me. It is not very welcoming when you hang crucifixes on your wall, it is not a very welcoming place. I love you guys, I really love you.

I want to stay here but only if I am welcome. I am not going to fight with you anymore, I am tired of it! Love you guys.

Where Jesus says: trust not your best intentions....it is much better to be wrong about everything. I know what I am talking about. Thank you.

I am here for you, and you know it. Just as you are here for me! You are here with me because of your promise to help me, I am just reminding you of a the promise that you've already made.....we've already made this agreement on the other side, I am just reminding you.

Now, you have a function here, you have a purpose here..... thank you, thank you.

It is individual, of course it is individual!

I love you. You look good, you look good. This is an experiment, and it is affecting everything. It is working, don't be afraid of the power of your own mind.

I can heal the sick, and raise the dead. Say that with me, will you?

They are just ideas in my mind, there is no one out there. I am not healing someone else, it is impossible. I am healing the idea of sickness in my own mind.

How do I do it? By renouncing to it. Good for you. That is what I need to hear. I need to hear you say it, I need you do it, I need hear you demonstrate it. I RENOUNCE SICKNESS! Once and for all, I do it now, and I will not change my mind.

But the moment I stub my toe, I forget. No, I am not going to do that anymore. I renounce sickness once and for all! And if it arises in any form again, I am going to look right through it! I am not going to get caught in that trap again!

That is what I need you say, I need that demonstration from you.

This is the lineage now, you are the apostles... you are going to go and heal the sick and raise the dead.

How do you do it? Recognizing they are just thoughts in your own mind, that you don't longer want. Yes or no? Are you done with them or are you stay addicted to them?

At this frequency, they are so distasteful I have no understanding of how you can be attracted to them.

Yes, it is true. There is too much light, there is too much purity!

Good, that is good...notice I am not taking you all the way out. You know I am Master Teacher, do you know that? It doesn't help me to take you all the way out... you just return and forget.

Oh it helps you much more if I show you in the context that you appear to be dreaming, that God is right here with you, not some where else. Everything is changing here, right where you find yourself. The miracle is here, the light is here, not somewhere else. The light is here because the light everywhere! Are you ok? Stand with me just a moment, everything is changing...you are healing the world. Everything is changing because of this gathering.

Are you present at this gathering? If you are here say: Present.

We are out of time. I love you guys. Listen... We are making a decision that is affecting the entire world, right here, behind closed doors. Come on... you are in the upper room with Jesus, you are making a decision that is affecting everything!

I renounce death, I renounce sickness, and I will see evidence of the miracle less nature of my intention. YES, in the reflections all around me, which are just effects of my own mind. Thank you.

I am just showing how to get out of here. Michael, do you see what I am doing.... I am showing you how to get out of here. Good for you, you look beautiful. You've got your new balls. Everyone is got their new balls, you've got what you need now to stand here, be healed and heal your dream, down to the toes. Will finish this lesson: Truth will correct all errors in my mind!

...When truth has come it harbors in its wings the gift of perfect constancy, and love which does not falter in the face of pain, but looks beyond it, steadily and sure. Here is the gift of healing, for the truth needs no defense, and therefore no attack is possible. Illusions can be brought to the truth to be corrected. But the truth stands far beyond illusions, and can not be brought to them to turn them into truth

Truth does not come and go not shift nor change, in this appearance now and then in that, evading capture and escaping grasp. It does nods in open light, in obvious accessibility. It is impossible that anyone could seek it truly, and would not succeed. Today belongs to the truth.

This is the teaching that you heard this morning from Lylian. This day, today, belongs to truth

I will not accept anything but the truth. I am making the decision. Every time I associate I am making the decision: I will not accept anything but the truth. I will not associate with anything but the truth. So don't bring me anything else, anymore, ever again for I will not accept it!

Give truth its due, and it will give you yours. You were not meant to suffer and to die. Your Father wills these dreams be gone. Let truth correct them all.

We do not ask for what we do not have. We merely ask for what belongs to us, that we may recognize it as our own. Today we practice on the happy note of certainty that has been born of truth. This shaky and unsteady footsteps of illusion are not our approach today. We are certain of success as we are sure we live and hope and breathe and think. We do not doubt we walk with truth today, and count on it to enter into all the exercises that we do this day.}

Begin by asking Him Who goes with you upon this undertaking that He be in your awareness as you go with Him. You are not made of flesh and blood, and bone, but were created by the selfsame Thought which gave the gift of life to Him as well. He is your Brother, and so like to you your Father knows that you are both the same. It is your self you ask to go with you, and how could He be absent where you are?

I love you guys, I love you, you are making real progress now. Thank you, Father, thank you . Thank you for the evidence of the truth, all around me. Everywhere I look!

Truth will correct all errors in your mind which tell you, you could be apart from Him. You speak to Him today, and make your pledge to let His function be fulfilled through you. To share His function is to share His joy. His confidence is with you, as you say:

Truth will correct all errors in my mind,

And I will rest in Him Who is my Self.

Then allow Him lead you gently to the truth, which will envelop you and give you peace so deep and tranquil that you will return to the familiar world reluctantly.

And yet you will be glad to look again upon this world. For you will bring with you the promise of the changes which the truth that goes with you will carry to the world. They will increase with every gift you give of five small minutes, and the errors that surround the world will be corrected as you let them be corrected in your mind.

Do not forget your function for today. Each time you tell yourself with confidence. "Truth will correct all errors in my Mind", you speak for all the world and Him Who would release the world, as He would set you free.

I love you guys. Thank you....we call this integration. What is occurring now is integration. You are here for a reason. You are completing a function, you are completing your assignment. You picked up your assignments this morning, and you are carrying them out, you are bringing them to the world. That is integration.

Now, I am here with you, God is here with you. The old Man is here with you, Jesus is here with you. Everyone that you need is here, your brother is here with you. Help is all around you...ok?

I love you guys, I am simply helping you to integrate.

You are not in the same place you were a moment ago, everything is changed. You are in a new frequency, a new cycle.

Because of your willingness to come back, you are closer to the end of time. For everyone! Remember you are not here for yourself alone. Right, I love you guys, I am really glad you are with me. You look good, really good. You can see to infinity from here.

I was meditating before coming down to session, I heard Jesus say to me: even the stones will cry out. You know when He speaks in these terms. When you are acknowledging God, even the stones will cry out, in other words, everything in your mind would make the same gesture that you made. This is why you are never without the help that you need! Everything is in your mind and when you make the gesture, everything makes the gesture along with you.

That's what makes this provision alive, the stones are alive. All you do is walk into this provision and you heal the vibratory frequency associated with this transitional identity. Why?

The stones are alive, the stones are crying out. Everything is crying out, everything is turning toward the solution, because you are and everything is in your mind.

The more consistent you are, the more stable the frequency becomes. This is why I need you to make a decision, you have to make a decision; because it doesn't help if you are going back and forth. You are with me one day and the next day you are not sure. You are off doing something else. It doesn't really serve because I am here to stabilize the frequency, the transitional idea.

Are you ok with that degree of commitment? You haven't been able to commit yourself... this is another opportunity.

When you make the gesture everything in your mind turns toward the light. Good. Now they are depending on you. You hear me, this is the responsibility associated with the vision....they are depending on you now. You gave them a glimpse of the light and now they are depending on you. Are you going to leave them now, and say fuck you, find your own way? No it's too late. You have given them a glimpse of the light and now they are depending on you to get them out of here.

Can you do this with me? I am here with you, and believe me we are in good hands...in this lineage we are in good hands.

I love you guys, I love you

This is a big week end... this is where you grow up. We are going to prepare a place for all the world; A world with out suffering!

Thanks guys.

Father, I am here on your behalf.

I have no will apart from yours! Father, I have no will apart from yours...

My love listen to me: Without the light, there is nothing. Trust me with this. Without the light, it is just the blind leading the blind.

No one in the world has any idea what is going on. They are just wondering around looking for solutions; they are depending on you, literally.

Thanks guys, thank you... I love you... thank you for joining here with me!

This is an intensive!

You may want to have a quite time now.....

I will use the power of my mind to demonstrate the truth; sickness is an illusion, death is a lie, and now I am going to demonstrate it to the whole world.

That is the world you invited me back to.

I was a little bit reluctant to return because of your pied crossed promises: easily made, easily broken.

Thank you...

No more promises....I want your demonstrations; it is time to grow up!

Thanks guys

Get some rest

Your dream is about to come true!

You are not too afraid of your dream coming true, are you?
