

I Cut the Apple Tree

March 10, 2009

I am trying to offer you peace.

Peace means you are not guilty.

It means that there is no one else.

Say to me: I am the only one here. That is true.

You are a story teller. You are telling a story...

What story are you telling? You are telling the story of George Washington. Do you know that George Washington... who was George Washington? George Washington was the first president of The United States. The reason George Washington got elected president, do you know the story?

There was a story going around when he was running for Office.... When he was a child his father went into the garden and saw that a Cherry tree had been cut down.... this is a true story, I am telling you a story.....his father goes out and he sees the tree on the ground and he completely freaks out. He storms into the house and says: "WHO CUT DOWN THE CHERRY TREE?" He was really pissed off you see, and here is little George Washington, who was only eight years old... he was scared shit-less," I cannot tell a lie", he said. "It was me who cut the tree." That's it! That is the story that got him elected president.

That is profound.... It is everything I have to offer you.

We are telling stories. That is the story that we are telling today. I am not going to lie! WHO CUT DOWN THE APPLE TREE, Ha? Who did? I CUT IT DOWN! That is everything I have to offer.... YOU are not guilty... listen to me..., you are not guilty, it was ME who did it.

Here is the problem that you have at the threshold... the problem that you have at the threshold is that the evidence is beginning to overlap... listen to me... I want you to hear this because it is important. The evidence that you are dreaming is beginning to mount up, is beginning to overlap. In other words; all you are seeing are fragments of your dream that are indicating to you that you are the cause, that you are the dreamer. You are seeing evidence everywhere and you won't be able to escape it. How do I know? George Washington told me.

I am seeing everywhere. I watch a movie, and I am seeing evidence, I look out my window and I see the evidence, everywhere I go I see the evidence that the story is winding up. Why is it winding up? Because I am seeing evidence that I am the cause! I am trying to show you this; you are the cause, you are causing this. You are dreaming and you are making the decision now to awaken and you are seeing the evidence everywhere. Now don't be afraid.

This is what The Bleep. If you see the movie again with me, I will show it to you. What is the movie indicating: I am the only one here. Everywhere I look I am seeing myself! There is no one else, they are just characters.

Now, If I can resist the temptation to confuse myself with the role, I will awaken. The temptation persists; this is a persistence of memory. The temptation persists, to confuse myself with the role I am playing.

I've played all the roles. This is why you can use me. I have cut down a few apple trees in my life, more than a few. Not only that but I lied about it. "It wasn't me, it was him. He did it, it wasn't me! Come on I am trying to show you I have played all the roles. I am finally now able to admit that it was me who cut the apple tree. Can you hear me... can you hear me a little bit? I want you to be honest with yourself.

If anyone is doing something it is you. Are you ok with that? How is that going to appear, how is that going to picture?

Say to me: All thought produces form at some level.

That is true, and that is from Jesus and that comes from me. All thought will generate form, until you recognize that the thought and the form are the same thing, they are not different. They are the exactly the same, and they are occurring simultaneously, there is no distance. Distance is what time is, it is what illusion is... of course. The distance between yourself and yourself is what the illusion is.

The world is only a thought in my mind. Say it!

How can I help you? "Well I am going to build myself a monastery and I going to sit lotus for as long as it takes for me to remember that I just built a monastery in order to sit here in lotus". Yes or no? Yes I am responsible for all of this. And what is wrong with it? Nothing! I might as well say; I am going to build myself a world and I am going to construct armies and I am going to have them war with each other. What is that? That is you seating lotus in a monastery. That's not any different! Nobody hears it, nobody.

You think there is a difference between you sitting lotus and the war in The Middle East, and there is no difference, it is exactly the same thing. Yes or no?

What is happening in the Middle East? It is you seating lotus! It is going on in your mind. It is happening right now.

What am I doing now?

I am sitting lotus.

Do you hear me a little bit? There is nothing outside of your mind. Come on... I am trying to offer you a continuous resolution. I AM THE ONLY ONE HERE. There is no one else here.

There is one self, generating one dream and that dream is being resolved because that one self has made a decision to awaken. Yes, that is it. Are you ok? Now all the evidence around you is evidence of that awakening.

Why did I cut down the tree? To shock you! You needed to be shocked in order to awaken.

Now who did I use?

I used poor Jonas. Jonas, I love you, thank you for playing that part. It wasn't an easy role to play. What happened to Jonas? Jonas blacked out, and when he woke up, the tree, all of the branches were on the ground. And he was standing on the middle of the branches saying "what the fucked just happened." He had no idea what had happened. Yes or no?

I am sure that was what happened. It is called being possessed. It is the idea that you are doing something..... the old man, I love how he used to teach this; "It seemed like the right thing to do at the time."

Why the hell did you do that? Well, it seemed like the right thing to do at the time. I don't know why I did it. I have no idea. I was driven to do it. By the way, this is true of everything that you do. There is no reason for anything. You are driven to do it, by forces unseen.

Ultimately, what is that unseen force? Come on, advanced practitioners... Grace, God. I did it in God, and as God and for God. I can't escape! Everything I do I do it for God. That's a perspective and that is the perspective that I am offering you. So, don't try to question what I do or what anyone does. This is just a perspective; you can go to a monastery, you can do anything that you like, you can raise kids.... Who cares!

None of it would have happened in any case. None of it would have occurred. Nothing has happened yet. Nothing has happened yet, and that is the perspective that I am offering you. Can you hear me a little bit? I am just offering you a perspective.

You are dreaming and the evidence is overlapping now. It is obvious that you are dreaming and you can not escape. The evidence is all around you. Are you going to allow it to be resolved in you now or are you going to pursue another dream that you think it is going to serve you? I don't know, that is a decision you are making. I don't have any idea about it. I can tell you it is very close, because I am seeing evidence of it everywhere. You are welcome to join me in that realization, and that is what this place is, that is what this provision is; a place where the dream is being reconciled singularly, as one self.

Now you can either join me or accept that, or you can resist me and go another round. That decision is yours to make. Jesus will say; I am standing with you at the end of time. Here I am with you, at the end of time, offering you the continuing resolution. What is the resolution? I cut down the tree; I am the only one here. Why did I cut it down? In order to remember God!

Why do I do anything? In order to remember God! Everything I did in time is a form of remembering. That's all, nothing else! The only thing that happened in time is I remembered God, or I remembered myself, which is the same thing! Are you OK guys? I am simply trying to offer you the solution.

We are coming from the bottom up. Ok? Now, you can teach this as yesterday's lesson, "Love holds no grievances" I stand in love, I stand in light and accept responsibility. I am not holding any grievances against any one, I accept responsibility for all of you.

Or you can teach it as Michael taught it yesterday, I love it, the only thing that is left of the past is a blessing. The past is gone, all that is left of the past is your blessing on the world. I bless the world as I bless myself, and I leave here. That is all I am offering, one last blessing. Guys are you ok?

Is this the time that you forgive the world or are you waiting for some other time? If you are waiting for some other time, there will be a story involved. You have no choice, because time and story are the same fucking thing! Are you hearing me?

You can say I will wait for another time, and that is fine, you would have to invent a story of some sort or you can't stay here because time is what the story is. What story are you going to tell? Go ahead, begin telling your story. Of course it is going to be based on a past idea. That is what the story is. Listen to me... this is what the bleep... you believe the story is independent from you and that is not true! You are the story, the story is you. There is no difference. There are no differences. You are the story and you are telling the story. You can see that. Holy shit! Really? You are telling the story and you are the story?

Now, what are you going to do? It is a good time to start asking for help. You need help in order to transcend your addiction to story telling. Yes or No? Yes! I love you, and help is with you. It is taking shape. Here it is. Hello....here is a shape.....ugh..... You love your stories. I watch you... you love your stories. What do you call it? Facebook.

What is face book? A story, the story that you are telling yourself! I have more friends than you do.... Look how many friends I have! Collecting friends is the new way of currency by the way. You start buying now according to how many friends you have. How much is that going to cost me? Three friends! Or... you can have him, he's not worth that much to me... I love you guys!

It's crazy, you are just telling stories....but here is the thing; you can sit in the resolution, you can recognize that this is all you are doing. In other words, you can take responsibility and be honest with yourself, and ask for help. That is how you transcend the tendency! Are you ok? Help is all around and it is going to start taking shape.

You really think you are watching movies...this is another thing that makes me laugh;

Outside the frame, out looking at the condition you really think that the movies that you are watching on the screen are different than the movies you are watching with the people that are walking around in the world, it is not true.... Or the dreams that you dream at night, are different somehow from the movies that you are watching....they are all thoughts in your mind.

That is why you were given Battle Star. Did you notice that there is not a single whole character in Battle Star? No one is whole. Who is the only whole character in Battle Star? I am, I am the only one. All of those characters in Battle Star are all an aspect of myself! I can see myself in each one. But one has to stand in responsibility. One has to stand and say; it is me, it is all me. In other words, one has to stand and not judge. Stand and say, he is not doing anything wrong; she is not doing anything wrong either.

No one is doing anything wrong... it is all me. I am responsible for all of it. I can find myself in every character, I see myself in all. Every one is acting perfectly, everyone is doing exactly what they are suppose to be doing, including the "cylons", they are all doing exactly what they are suppose to be doing. They are all part of the resolution... There is only me...I am the only one.

Are you ok? I am looking at your mind now, I don't care about the role you are playing. The role you are playing is an illusion, but is an illusion with a purpose....Good. That is better. It's an illusion with an idea of resolution or forgiveness or healing and that is what makes it the same. Your role is not different from mine because it is involved in the resolution. It is the role that you are playing in the final dream. I forgive you therefore. I don't care what role you are playing. If you could do this with each other it will help you speed up your process. The role that you are playing is perfect, absolutely perfect.

But you are a pain in my ass!..... Yes, it is just what I needed!

I needed the pain in the in order to get out of here. Thank you for playing that role.

I remember when I was a pain ... I used to be a pain in the ass. I was the biggest pain in the ass there is! I used to love to cause trouble just to cause trouble, not for any other reason. I loved trouble. Come on.

That is why you got me as a savior. Why do you pick me as a savior? I am a trouble maker, I've always been one.

Why did I cut the tree? I hate it when it stabilizes that is why I keep it moving. Are you ok with me?

I love you, I love you, I love you!

Now, there is a place in conciousness where the tree is blooming. That is what I am trying to offer you. The grass is pushing through the soil, the buds are pushing through the branches, you can see it, they are right there! The tree is about to blossom!

That is a place in consciousness. What is it called? Forgiveness. It is called forgiveness, it is called I love you!

Can you feel me? I love you I love you before time was, I love you before anything happened, I love you before you did anything wrong.

Guys, are you ok? Are you ok? Talk to me.....

The only problem that I have stabilizing this frequency, at the threshold, is that any stray thought will create a problem; it will generate form, in other words. So I have to be really mindful, of course. I am trying to show you how to stabilize it. You have to be at this frequency, very mindful of your thoughts.

It is not that anything real is going to happen, but something is going to happen that you are going to take seriously and believe that you have to convert it, and you will suffer. You don't have to do that anymore. Guys, listen to me; I am not trying to cause you trouble, I am trying to show you that you are causing yourself that trouble. You don't have to struggle overcoming the karma associated with cutting the tree. You can stop before doing anything and breathe.....do nothing, just breath, and you won't do anything wrong.

Listen to me: everything you do will be in accordance with the continuing resolution which transcends the requirements of the conversion altogether. You don't have to convert anything. That is not what I am teaching you. Conversion is a waste of time.

Anyone want to say that with me?

Conversion is a waste of time!

Why are you converting? It is a waste of time. I am not asking you to convert. I don't want you to convert. Converting hurts me as much as it hurts you! I hate that you convert ideas. I hate it! There I said it!

I have a standing argument with The Old Man, in this regard. I don't give a shit! I don't care.

I have a standing argument with Jesus for being crucified. I have a standing argument with Jesus, for saying that the body is too dense. I have an argument there. The body is too dense, is what the crucifixion is. It is not true. The body doesn't exist. It is not dense, it is neither dense nor transparent. It doesn't exist.

Any one ready to take this step with me?

What is the crucifixion? The body is too dense to enlighten. It is not true. The body doesn't exist. There is no body.

Are you ok with me? are you ready to take that step or you want to convert the body some more?

Converting the body is what sickness is. You don't need to do that anymore. You don't need a healing to be healed. You are already that. I am trying to show you that place in consciousness. All you have to do is breath before you do anything, and it is impossible that you do anything wrong.

But that doesn't seem to be practical advice to me.....

What is practical? That you blunder through your dream hoping for the best? What is practical? You tell me what practical is.

The solution is out there some where, and I am going to find it, so I am going to move from place to place. You never have to get up again. You don't have to move from this place. You can stay right here and have it be resolved in you. You can be in the continuing resolution and enjoy the gift that has been given you, the grace that has been offered you in the form of a continuing resolution. Are you ok guys?

Once more; I am not asking you to convert. Please don't convert anymore. Your converting causes me anguish, makes me sad to see you convert. Makes me very sad! I don't want to see you converting. Your pain is my pain; I am offering you something else.

There is a place in consciousness where there is a continuing conversion, where God is doing all the work, I am not doing anything. It is called the miracle, by the way, if you want to call it something. Are you ok with me guys? I really love you!

I want you to be happy. The only way you are going to be happy is by allowing God to do the work, allow God to animate the sequence. Allow God to determine, to dream this final dream. OK? Are you ok? I love you, thank you for joining me.

It is a frequency, a frequency. Nothing is being asked of you. Look; You are being offered a final dream, it is taking a shape, it is a cohesive shape, unlike the fragmented dream you produced... it is a whole dream that is being offered you, of healing. All you need do is stand still and accept the dream that is being given you by him, who knows the way, Yes.

Now, if you need to identify Him you can use me. What am I? I am dreaming a dream for you. I am dreaming a whole dream of resolution, and I am inviting you to join me. That is all. That is all that I am. Good. Call that Holy Spirit if you like. Ok, are you ok?

Now, this dream that I am dreaming is going to include you, whether you like it or not. You have no choice. You have already been included. And this is Jesus now.... When Jesus resurrected..... I am afraid you resurrected along with Him. You have no choice!

What is time? The illusion that you didn't. Time is the illusion!

Are you ok? This is over, this is over....this is over. This dream is being offered you now as a form of the resolution.

"Now, I am not sure that I trust you so I am going to dream my own dream."

Alright, let me know how that turns out. The only true dream is an inclusive one. Are you ok?

Now, again, the evidence is beginning to overlap. Why are the evidences beginning to overlap? Because you and I are beginning to overlap! Come on... I am looking at the empty space in you, which is generating this dream..... the light in you, in other words. So when the light in Us begin to overlap, the evidence begin to overlap, in other words our dreams begin to tell a common story, display a common theme. Did you hear me?

What is that common theme? Salvation; I am talking of atonement, love, enlightenment, forgiveness... you use the word, I don't care. Guys, are you with me? I am watching you. I am just trying to increase your awareness so that you don't think you are doing something different from me. It is impossible. There is only one of us waking up. There is only one of us who awakens, and that self is singular, and that is what I am offering you.

But the story that I am telling appears to be different from yours, it appears to be taking more time..... Ok, then allow me to be an older brother and tell a story that ends right now!

But I don't know if I am that ready.....

Then at least stay close. I don't care..... From my perspective it is always ending because it is already ended. I'll accept you where ever you are and whenever you are. Guys, are you ok?

I am offering you the grace of the continuing resolution. That is all.

Now, you are asking for something more: "I want something more than just the collapse of my dream, I want to see things differently."

That's what I am doing for you, that is what I am demonstrating for you. I am showing you that the evidence is beginning to overlap, in other words, that the effects of your mind are exhibiting signs of healing. You are a physical healer, yes, that is why you are here. You are here to generate a physical healing, once and for all! Listen to me... The world is healed in you, and you are here to demonstrate that the world is not other than what you are. You are here to demonstrate that it is not physically other than what you are. It is a physical representation of yourself. It is called physical resurrection. Are you ok?

Now, you will signs everywhere, The only problem that you have is that you think there is someone else. It is the only problem that you have. You still believe that there is someone else that you are teaching or convincing or somehow manipulating, and that is not true. There is no one around.

Now I can use all sorts of thoughts, all sort of thoughts. I'll give you another example: I played with you guys the other day...I played guitar... I haven't played guitar in years.... That very day I get a picture from a friend, a former guitar player, from 1972, and there he was the way he was then, just before we went down into his basement to play.

How does that happen? What is that? It is evidence that the dream is over. It is the same thought that is coming into alignment... John is with me, there is no way he is not with me, because he is a beloved one, in other words, he is one of mine.

But he is not here with you....

Yes he is. And the reason that I know is because he sent me the photo on the very day that I played guitar with you guys. Do you hear me, do you see how this works? These are just thoughts in consciousness. When I played "gravity", I healed the world! Yes or no? Come on... it is obvious. Just listen to the video. I love you guys,! The same is true for you. Michael, when you sang it, you healed the world. Of course!

Now, Do you need to see evidence? There is evidence all around you, that that is true. Open your eyes and you will begin to see it, I am just given you an example from my own experience.

It is like watching the movie the other day about the apple tree, and then having it displayed itself in form the next day. How did that happen? You guys saw the movie, is there any difference between what happened in the movie and what happened outside? No difference! Exactly the same story, exactly. How did that happen? The dream is over my friend; that is how it happened. The dream is over!

The evidence is mounting that the dream is over. Are you seeing evidence within your own mind? That is what this provision is. It is offering you evidence that you dream is over.

Why does she keep showing up, she keeps showing up, I wish she would go away.....

She is not going to go away; she is not going anywhere because she is with me. She is leaving with me. Are you ok? Is that ok with you? it is going to have to be, because it is the way it is. The same is true for all the guys that you are not sure you want to be here. They are here, because they are here with me, and this is my dream. You can join me, I am offering it to you as a demonstration, as a healing demonstration. OK?

I remember when the Old Man said to me: you are not going to be able to dream out of here without me. Was he right? Of course He was! What is He doing right now? He is dreaming me out of here. Can you hear me? Our dreams are overlapping. This is a good way of teaching this; I use to have fun with the Old Man like you have no idea. Out there in the Universe, I used to have fun with the Old Man in this regard; I called Him up and He would say: Oh yes, this is where our dreams overlap, and all I would see when I looked up would be infinity. I looked through the dream, through the content of the dream and see the context; love, I would see the empty space.

There is an empty space or a space left vacant, and you simply slip right through it..... you are already on the other side.

Who is there with you? Everyone, everything! You are already there.

But why do I keep speaking? I am speaking from the other side. Can you hear me a little bit? I am speaking from the other side. It is the voice that is showing you the way home. Ok good! That is the frequency that I am trying to stabilize, there is a voice coming from the other side and when you hear it, you are on the other side. Yes, yes, and it is only just occurring, not some other time.

That is the best I can do for you. This is where you get afraid. My friend, your dream is over! There is no where else for you to go. Every where you go now you will see evidence that you are dreaming. Oh shit... that is pretty fearful.... You really thought this was real; it is not, it is a dream and the evidence is beginning to mount up. That is as much as I am going to offer you, I don't want to give you too much. I would lose you. I don't want to lose you, I just want to keep you here and help you now in this final stage of the transition.

Everything else will take care of itself. If I can hold you here, Gaby, if I can hold you here you will see the evidence for yourself! I won't have to do anything, I won't have to teach you anything I can just hold you here and you will begin to see evidence within the context of your own dream, you will see the evidence and you will know that what I say is true, you will know it for yourself. I won't have to say it. Then we will be in communication, you will be where I am and you will do as I do.

What will you do? You will be the factor of reconciliation, you will be Grace itself. Are you ok with me? You will be Grace itself. That is where we overlap. By the way, that is called the "lineage". The lineage is that overlapping that is occurring. There is only one of us here. There is only one of us, one of us present and that one is Jesus, or that one is you. Same thing! Guys, are you ok, are you ok? Come on.....you are just telling a final story, you can breath right through, the evidence is being given.

The physical appearance of temptation becomes the spiritual recognition of salvation. Are you ok? I love you.

This is all just a transparency, all just effects of a mind that now has come whole. Keep your eyes opened and you will see. Thanks guys; that is all I have to say.

Namate,

Thank you.

You fix you attention on the light. See how easy it is. You fix your attention on the light, and the story just unfolds, and it has no effect on you what so ever. You are just witnessing the unfolding, that is all! What is the unfolding of? Healing, it's a reflection of the light. Yes! This is seeking first the kingdom. You got it? Now, what is the practice? This requires your vigilance. You have to fix your attention on the light. Now, if you allow me to, I will try to fix you... it sounds like a song, that is the next one we should play...

Thanks guys, I love you, thank you, thank you!

When there is this much light you will see the evidence, and the only way you can avoid it is if you cover your eyes. Jesus says: Those who seek the light will be covering their eyes. That is all. Why wait for enlightenment, it is here and now.

Thank you, thank you. It is very plain, very easy to see. Just keep brushing, brushing away the opposition, I know thoughts continue to arise, just brush them off. They have no hold on you at all, they are just thoughts, unless you allow them to take root. How do you allow them to take root? You give them your attention! You have no idea how fertile your mind is! Your mind is fertile to infinity; that is how fertile it is. Every thought takes root and grows to a perfect whole representation of you. It is unavoidable; it is what makes you and God the same thing. That is what God is. Are you ok with that?

God is the context in which all thought arise. Yes, that is infinitely fertile ground.

No one is judging you. You did nothing wrong, you can just brush away your thoughts. That is what I want you to do. I don't want you to mourn over them to convert them. I want you to just brush them away, laugh with me; learn to laugh with me. Don't take it so personally, you haven't done anything wrong, you just learned to laugh. OK? Together we will laugh away the opposition until it disappears...

I love you guys

Thank you, thank you,

Thank you for everything that you are doing, thank you for saving the world by playing “gravity” with me.

Thanks guys.

If you were leaving here right now what is the last thing you would say?

“Thank you”, “I love you”

Those are good farewell words. I love you guys.

Are you guys ok? Feeling good? Are you feeling pretty good in your awakening? Good. You have every reason to feel secure in your awakening. You are very far along.

Once again, this will be the last time,; If you allow Him to, God will show you a picture of healing. Once you have seen a picture of healing, you will be at peace. You will leave here in peace. In other words, there will be nothing left to do. That is what peace is. What is peace of mind? There is nothing left to do. Do you see that is the only way your mind will be at rest? Good, good! That is an advanced idea! Peace is, there is nothing left to do. That is the picture that is being adjusted for you now, by Grace. Good. I love you guys.

I am really happy to be here with you. Thanks for allowing me to do my job. I love doing my job. I love my job!

I like full bodied music. I like music that is full bodied. I like a full bodied savior. Do you know what I mean? Do you know what I am saying? I like a savior that is fully embodied! Passionate, maybe.....

Thanks guys. Thank you for all this light, and all this love. It’s nice to feel at home!

Remember to brush off your objections, keep them away.....with gentle laughter; that is how you brush them.

Thank you, good to see you.
