

Sharing A Vision of Love

Saturday May 17, 2008

You can think of my mind as a – the best word I can come up with, is, context, a provision. It's a provision which includes a context, wherein which you can exercise your inherent capacity to transcend your condition.

You are a whole mind and you're dreaming a dream and all I am is a safe context to learn that you can transcend that dream. So what I bring to you is an unequivocal and unmistakable awareness that you are dreaming. You, individually, are making the decision about the time you are taking or using and how you are using that time i.e. for what purpose.

You are coming and going all the time, but every time you return, you do so with a fresh purpose, reason. The only thing I offer you is the happiness associated with being here on behalf of God. If you are here on behalf of God you will be happy, if you are here on your own behalf you will be unhappy – that is the entirety of my message.

But I offer you a demonstration of that, a context, wherein what I'm saying is realised. The reflection is verifying what I'm telling you. How is that possible? A miracle – and it's the gift that I bring. When you are around me you look at the result of your own mind and you will realise it because I am the context within which this is self-evident.

I'm doing the best that I can and it's not an easy job – no one in his right mind would take it!

In truth, from my perspective, I don't really need to speak of these things – I can simply demonstrate, sit and extend my mind. The value of saying them is a verification for you, that you are on the right track.

I'm speaking to you in a language you are able to comprehend and, at the same time, offering you a continuing alternative. You learn to integrate, include and forgive.

My words carry the same Light as my being – there's no difference. My words are filled with the same Light because they come from the same Source – not that speaking has any value in and of itself. Words are symbols and like all symbols, they can reflect illusion or Truth, and that depends on what you want to see.

What I would like to continue to offer you is a happy outcome that is based on your surrender or submission to God's Will in the form: "Father, I'm here – how can I serve?" Essentially service, in any form, will align you with this agency, grace. It has nothing to do with what you do, it has to do with your disposition or the reason you are providing yourself for being here. You are inventing reasons for being here all the time. I'm just offering you a brighter reason.

You move through this right of passage from time to eternity. Now, you are in a particular realm of consciousness – it's a context, it's where you find yourself. You will always find yourself within a context and that context will always be within God because there is no context apart from God. As you move through these frequencies you find that your vision is clearer – I'm moving the debris out of the way so you can communicate clearly.

When you look at me, you are communicating directly. When you see me you are communicating mind to mind. You are overlooking what isn't there. Around me, I'm simply making it easier for you because I am that very context. I am the clearing away of debris, that's what I do. If I'm here, you can be sure that your debris is being cleared. It's what Jesus would say as "I'm offering you my vision" I'm starting to see thin edges of Light around many of you, indicating that you are beginning to receive me. It's working perfectly. A happy outcome is guaranteed by God. I'm just offering a happy outcome now, rather than later.

Why wait for Heaven? It is here and now. All the gifts of Heaven are being given you, in exactly a form you are ready to receive. The Old Man used to call that compensation, in exact measure – what you give is what you receive.

I'm sharing a vision of love, of light, of happiness, of peace. Nothing can interfere or conflict with it, unless I allow it to.

Thank you for your trust.

I'm going to remind you now of the parts that are being played here. We are assigning each other outside of the framework. Sometimes, by the time you see the reflection you have forgotten that you are the cause. You have an agreement outside of the frame, to play this role. You have already decided in your mind what it is that I am, the role that I'm playing, before you entered into the frame. We made that decision together.

This is simply a picture of a decision we already made. The reflections are always only past – I see only the past, because the decision has already been made by us. We've already decided how this is going to end – it's going to end in a context wherein which I can recognise that I'm dreaming. We'll do that together...as Holy Spirit, the one Self is deciding the outcome.

Stop paying attention to the fragmented roles and just play your part. Don't worry about what anyone else is doing. I'm just playing my part, I'm not comparing myself with anyone – it's not possible. I wouldn't know how to do it. I'm not judging what I'm doing because it's not being done by me it's being done by God. There's no-one to judge it. I'm here on his behalf – I'm an agency, I'm a conduit, a channel.

Who is there to judge? There's no-one here, except God. You have a tendency to be hard on yourself – don't compare yourself with anyone. The role you are playing is absolutely perfect, just as you are.

It's a story, it is a shared dream of salvation – you are taking your part. It's being dreamed by one Self. If we need to name that one Self we can call it Jesus if you like, or the Master Teacher. You could say that Jesus is dreaming this dream or is responsible for the outcome of this. Why not allow one who has transcended be responsible?

What I would like you to see is that there is every reason to be grateful because the memory of your awakening has been triggered in you or you wouldn't be here. If it would have been up to you, you would have been sleeping a long, long time. There is cause for gratitude. Father, thank you!

I want to offer this to you from the way that I do this, the way that I demonstrate. I'm not really a showman. I prefer to extend my mind quietly. I like to breathe and think of you. I think of you and I'm happy. I don't need to do anything about it. You remind me of God – you look just like your Father.

By the time you've reached this frequency you've tried everything.

Jesus would say: "Your Father loves you" – just as you are – you are not guilty.

Love is the natural state!

Do you notice how love and peace are the same thing? When you are wholly loving, there is nothing to fear.

I want to offer you a new vehicle. When the latest model comes out, it's a good idea to trade in your old one. The old one becomes obsolete – you may have trouble getting it started. The new models have arrived – we call them Light Bodies. They are seamless garments – try it on for size! You may have trouble using the old vehicle to communicate. The body you are aware of now is not the same body you were aware of a moment ago. It is lighter. It may not fit into the density of the old idea. It may float to the top. Like a basketball in water, you let go of the grievance and you rise up naturally...let go.

Everything's a parable. The Old Man wrote that as you awaken, your life becomes a parable. Everything's a cue. All things are echoes of the Voice for God.

A brother: "Sometimes I feel that nothing is happening."

Josh: It is not true. You know that something is happening, just as much as you know that nothing is happening. What do you want to see? You may be obsessed with nothing happening. It's an addiction to suffering and it's not true, it's impossible. You can either deny or accept it – right now...you are making a decision. The grace is always finding you within the context of your pictures – it is ever-present. Everyone is trying to help you – everyone is offering you the solution. You either cherish the idea of being separate, left out, or you grow up and you let it go.

There is only one of us present – and you rejoice. What we are doing is exposing your patterns – the Light will exacerbate your grievances, so you can see them. I'm doing this to myself. Jesus pays particular attention to this idea - wherever you open up ACIM. Why do you need to hear it? Because not hearing it is making you unhappy!

...I choose the peace of God. Where do you feel it? The sensation arises when you say it... You read my book, The Birthplace Place of Dreams in Chapter 3? It's an individual healing using a single lesson. We can do it together if you like...what happens when you say "I choose the peace of God"? What do you feel? You have a body sensation...where is it? It's a knot. What you are feeling in your head is secondary...If you are afraid of me I can't help you. I'm trying to join with you where the knot is to show you it's an illusion. The knot is literally a focus of attention. I'm trying to release it. In other words, you are fixated on yourself – you are going to feel that in your belly. What about me? What about me? What about me? Every time you say it, you are tightening that knot. I choose the peace of God instead of this. You can let go of it – there's nothing there. It's a choice you are making all the time.

There's nothing more painful than another body walking in the room – someone else is all the pain there is. Who is here? You and God! God is in everything I see because God is in my Mind. It's not difficult – you just have to do it. You just have to apply the thought that is given you to the circumstances as they arise. Whether or not you remember is directly dependent on just how addicted you are. I choose the peace of God instead of this. Sooner or later you will say it and smile. You only say it once and you smile because you know the answer is given. What's the answer? The peace of God.

Jesus says that when you return to your world, it becomes a little more heaven-like in its ways. In other words, as you carry this grace with you into your dream, your dream will begin to reflect new frequencies, new relationships in Light. If you are open-eyed, witness the change. That's the fun of salvation – bearing witness to the change. Every time there is a miracle and you allow the grace to descend, to animate your dream, you get to witness the adjustment in the matrix. You enjoy...they are always benevolent – increased joy. To heal is to make happy – that's how you know if the miracle worked. Keep your eyes open. This will begin to generate gratitude, even evidenced in the context of your old ideas.

Teaching is a way of calling attention to your-self – God's attention. You call upon God to give you his attention. This is the perfect location, the perfect provision for you to call upon God, because you will see the reflection immediately. This is out of time, the birthplace of dreams...It takes some guts – balls, because you are about to be exposed – exposed as a liar. Because you have been pretending all along! You've been justifying yourself, and you have made a good case for yourself. You can fool yourself but you can't fool me. Ultimately it's impossible that you can fool yourself. So this is an opportunity to call God's attention to yourself and ask for help.

This place is an open space for the descent of God's grace – no one is judging you...a stable bridge. The Light is all around. At the same time, you are trusting your brothers who are one with you. You want to be done with this, once and for all – yes? You're finished with your pattern? It's very old and very painful, not just for you, but for me... There's no difference. I'm not making a difference - that's why I'm here. I share your troubles and pain for a while, until you leave. I have no need of this.

We'll let Jesus finish it:

My brothers in salvation do not fail to hear my voice and listen to my words. I ask for nothing but your own release. There is no place for hell within a world whose loveliness can yet be so intense and so inclusive it is but a step from there to Heaven. To your tired eyes I bring a vision of a different world, so new and clean and fresh you will forge the pain and sorrow that you saw before. Yet this vision is which you must share with everyone you see, for otherwise you will behold it not. To give this gift is how to make it yours. And God ordained, in loving kindness, that it be for you.

Let us be glad that we can walk the world, and find so many chances to perceive another situation where God's gift can once again be recognized as ours! And thus will all the vestiges of hell, the secret sins and hidden hates be gone. And all the loveliness which they concealed appear like lawns of Heaven to our sight, to lift us high above the thorny roads we travelled on before the Christ appeared. Hear me, my brothers, hear and join with me. God has ordained I cannot call in vain, and in His certainty I rest content. For you will choose again. And in this choice is everyone made free.

I thank you, Father, for these holy ones who are my brothers as they are Your Sons. My faith in them is Yours. I am sure that they will come to me as You are sure of what they are, and will forever be. They will accept the gift I offer them, because You gave it me on their behalf. And as I would but do Your holy Will, so will they choose. And I give thanks for them. Salvation's song will echo through the world with every choice they make. For we are one in purpose, and the end of hell is near.

In joyous welcome is my hand outstretched to every brother who would join with me in reaching past temptation, and who looks with fixed determination toward the light that shines beyond in perfect constancy. Give my own, for they belong to You. And can You fail in what is but our Will? I give you thanks for what my brothers are. And as each one elects too join with me, the song of thanks from earth to Heaven grows from tiny scattered threads of melody to one inclusive chorus from a world redeemed from hell, and giving thanks to You.

And now we say "Amen". For Christ has come to dwell in the abode You set for Him before time was, in calm eternity. The journey closes, ending at the place where it began. No trace of it remains. Nor one illusion is accorded faith and not one spot of darkness still remains to hide the face of Christ from anyone. Thy will is done, complete and perfectly, and all creation recognizes You, and knows You as the only Source it has. Clear in Your likeness does the Light shine forth from everything that lives and moves in You. For we have reached where all of us are one, and we are home, where You would have us be.

Thank You. I love you. Namaste.
