

Everything You See Is An Image Of Reconciliation

February 17, 2011

It feels like I can be free in this company. Will you permit me to be free? Is my freedom your freedom? When I am free, you're free. Free me - is that the same as forgive me? Yes, to forgive me is to free me - to let me be myself. You see, I have perfected the art of leaving and that's why I don't mind coming in. But, I perfected the art of leaving by NOT entering in! Now I can come all I want. This is the new spiritual tradition: leaving by not entering in.

All the work that you have done to get this far, it's not easy. It takes consistent practice. Even though it's offered indiscriminately, it still takes the gesture. At this frequency, everything you see is an image of reconciliation. That's all you would be projecting. Have you become whole in your mind? The only thing you should be seeing as an effect, are scenes, pictures of reconciliation, forgiveness. You should see a forgiven world because you have forgiven it.

You're responsible. You're setting the rules. If there's conflict it's because you've allowed conflict. If you want to live with me in my kingdom, there's no conflict. You can't reach this frequency if you're in conflict. It's impossible. All around you is the light and the love of reality offering you everything and if you can't see it, it's because you are projecting the denial of everything onto everything. But you are coming into a clearer vision now. We are pictures of one another in our act of forgiveness. "But I don't want to be a picture anymore." Too fucking late. We are not denying you your picture; we're just offering you a picture of light & love. That's what this provision would be at its highest increment.

Most of you have accepted responsibility for your own dream, and that would be the birthplace of dreams - of your individual dream and of all dreams. It's the same place. Alpha and Omega. It's right here. There's one of us making the collective decision to awaken and remember who we are. We can't make that decision without offering it to the entire world, that's not possible. We're here sitting right smack in the middle of our agreement: to remember one another. The world is saved, healed, because we offer that agreement to the entire world.

You're in your own dream and you're waking up and the evidence of your awakening is all around you, plain to see. It's in our love for each other. It's all just memories in your mind becoming whole. I am just demonstrating how it's done. You are my loving memories. You're here with me. Why would I be spending the end of time with somebody else? You are my collection of perfect memories.

Nothing can keep you from remembering that you're the cause of this, because you are the cause of this. The belief that there's a cause somewhere else is an illusion. That's how I remember God: I do as God does. God gives all to all. That's the kind of God that I am. I am showing you how it's done. Do you want to awaken? Give all to all. I don't know how you do it, that's between you and God. I am giving all to all right now. This is how I do it. I am very happy to do it this way. I don't need a Golden Temple. I don't need 50,000 disciples. This is enough. We are a perfect match. You wanted a guy who can give you personal attention and I wanted to be able to give personal attention.

At this frequency, all of your effects are images of reconciliation - a picture of forgiveness because everything is a projection of my mind and my mind has forgiven or taken responsibility for the world. How you do that is entirely up to you, but you will be responsible. Jesus is praying in the garden: "Father, can you let this cup pass?" God doesn't answer. He has no idea what you're talking about. You're doing it to yourself.

I am just remembering how lovely my life has been in the presence of the Lord. At this frequency I am happy to share your memories, but I insist that they be memories of love. I won't share your memories of conflict; I can't do that anymore, don't bring them to me. Everyone in your dream has played an equal part. What I discovered in my awakening is that everyone was playing the role that I assigned to them. No-one was doing anything wrong. No one has ever done anything wrong. It's just a story and it ends right here with you. I am the last image you will ever see. Your reflection will be perfection.

Let it be. This is a new age now. You're in an entirely new sequence. You've got memories in there which are full of light and love. If you remember only those you will BE in the kingdom. It's that simple. It's been with you from the beginning. It hasn't left. If you see something else, you are simply mistaken.

I love you, namaste...
