

Come on out and play...

March 15, 2008

Everything has failed except to the extent that everything succeeds in getting you out of here. It was only meant to last just long to remember happiness. Only just that long. If you try to make it last any longer, you will struggle. It's not necessary. All time is going on all the time. It doesn't take time. Try not to place time between the problem and the solution. They are simultaneous. I love you. Anyone else want to have some fun? (referring to children playing) Come on up and play.

...that's true. Being present is not being here. If you are present, you're not here. You see that with absolute clarity.... you're not here. You're not located. ... I'm looking at you.... the Light in you....that which is animating your dream, that's the Light in you.

You're dreaming a good dream. How do I know? You're here....it must be a good dream or you wouldn't be here in this frequency. You must be doing something right. It's an indication to me that you're waking up. All I suggest that you do is stand still and look at any one of these in Light and be happy. Don't be concerned about the pictures. Stay in light. Enjoy the Light. allow the dream to dissolve. You have no problem that hasn't already been solved.

All ideas are being purified. A good example of this is the idea of Eckhart Tolle and the power of now. The idea is being purified. Now he's teaching (he's got another book out now) being present is to not be here. You see that idea has been purified. Before it was reduced to being present enjoying the world. Now be present and escape the world. The idea has been adjusted. He accepted the correction. From Jesus now, the world I see holds nothing that I want...He has a better idea. That's what it means to be present. Thank you.

The longer you stand still the more changes you will see, the more changes you will bear witness to. Don't judge what it looks like. You will know God is working through you because you'll be happy. No one needs to tell you, it's not open to discussion. That's why traditions ultimately fail. Because they become the end in itself rather than a means. This is something you can teach and verify.

Lylian: I only want the peace of God. And there is no justification for anything other than the peace of God. There is no excuse for anything but that.

Josh: When you stand as the Alternative. When you embody the Alternative, everything, all things, will acknowledge you as the Source. Now this is an experience. I'm trying to step it up a little bit now...It's an experience whereby you will know with certainty, not because I'm telling you, it will authenticate itself. You will know, with certainty, that you are the Source. Everything will acknowledge you as the Source.

Jesus teaches it like this. Every bird that has ever sung has sung its song for you. Every flower that's ever bloomed has saved its fragrance for you... he means it literally. For an instant it requires that you stand as the Alternative. Yes, this is "I Am Spirit". I'm just trying to offer you the reconciliation that is occurring in the present. In the present, everything is being reconciled. The entire universe is collapsing in on you. You are the universe. You are. You are. That's happening now as an event.

The dream is speeding up. You can feel it. The dream, the universe.....you are extending to embrace it. That's called Love. It's what you were describing... a Buddha field...its extending from you. You've returned from timelessness to be the savior of the world. Good for you. Thank you. I'm glad you're here. It's a sign that it's over. Thank you. I love you. Nice to be aware that there's never a problem. There's only a solution in another form. There's nothing to fear because the end is certain. Come on out and play...

Thanks guys. I love you.
