

Every day is Christmas and you thought it was Easter

April 9th, 2009

I'd much prefer to be a Shaman than a priest. Priests tend to be self-righteous. A shaman just comes in and says "hey, I found a way to get to the other side without dying. You can take your body with you because it's just a thought in your mind". Is that OK? I'd like to bypass all this tradition bullshit. It just causes trouble. "I'm going to do a comparative course in religion". That's what insanity is.

Say to me, salvation comes from me. From who? Who? Who? Who? You've got to get the joke. It's just a coincidence. No, it's not. There's no such thing as a coincidence. Everything occurs right on schedule. It's just time – time for you to make a decision. What's your decision going to be? Well, it's going to be a decision for you to be yourself. You can't avoid being yourself. If you think there's a conflict you are mistaken. No-one is preventing you from being yourself. That's the whole teaching. There's no-one out there. Say to me, there's no one out there. So what are you worried about?

No one is preventing you from being yourself. "But I have obligations." Step back. No one is preventing you from being yourself. You can be free. This guy is Josh being free. I don't have to report to anyone. I don't report to anyone. I'm free. Now I'm telling you. This is me outside my function as a messenger of Jesus. You know I'm only working for Jesus. Do you understand I'm only working for Jesus? Jesus isn't my savior – I'm my own savior. Are you OK with that or are you offended by that? I'm just showing you how this works.

A shaman is every bit as powerful as Jesus. Of course. Only one mind. What did you think? That's not the question. You have a tendency to compare the shaman with Jesus. It's the only problem you have. Trust me. You call it comparative studies in religion. You invent some name for it. It's a very funny idea. I love you guys. You know that Carmen is the head of the clan. Can you see it?

Look at Carmen. She's the head of the clan – she decides. "But I thought it was you that decides." I don't decide anything without asking Carmen. Is anyone hearing me? I'm talking about this vessel and how it operates. I don't make any decisions without consulting Carmen. She's got a business card – she gave it to me. It says "Consultations with Carmen". It's called a restaurant. It's where you come in and consult Carmen. It's important before you come in and assert yourself to recognise the chain of command. Is anyone going to hear me?

Listen to me. Before you open your mouth, recognise the chain of command. But you said I was the only one here. There's a chain of command. You are the only one here. But you report to someone. Sorry to be the one to inform you of that. You will report to someone. Ultimately that someone is God. But you can't get out of here without a shaman. You need a way-shower. You need a bridge. That bridge will take shape as long as you need it to, but it's nothing to do with the shape. The shape is an effect. You got it? What is El Portal? The shape or the effect of my thought of leaving here. That's what it is – it is that. It IS that.

How do I know it's that? Because it IS that. I don't have to consult you. I don't have to consult anyone. That's what it is. How do I know that? Because I know who I am. It might help you to recognise that I know who I am. You can call it a Master Teacher if you like. I don't give a fuck what you call it. I'm tired of names. I'm tired of names – how about you? Are you tired of names? Alright. I'm just trying to show you the way out. I'm just dreaming – I'm dreaming a dream right alongside you. I'm not dreaming your dream. I'm dreaming my dream.

But I'm dreaming right alongside you, and my dream is transparent. Can you hear me parallel universe? Good for you – you're a parallel universe. You are looking through your own transparency and you are seeing my transparency. Absolutely. You are a mind. I am a mind. You are just thinking - that all. Thinking is what love is. No ones judging your thoughts. I'm offering you Mastery now. I don't care how you do it. You can be a shaman if you like. You can be whatever you want. No one cares. God doesn't care. You are His Son. The Son of God. And you are not guilty and you cannot die.

This is the message of Holy Week. Death is impossible. You are not a body. You are not a body. Death is impossible. Everyone OK? I have a tendency to go fast because Carmen's playing catch-up. She's catching up. This is where Carmen and I catch-up – thank you sweetheart. How's it going? I love you so much. Do you see we're equals? Do you see where we are equals. We are equals outside of time. That's where we are equals. In time we are not equal, so don't bust my balls about it. We are not all equal in time. Quit busting my balls. How do you bust my balls – you compare me. I'm trying to help you. Bloody hell. What a place!

The reason I'm not a big fan of opera is because I'm a shaman – cut me some slack. Will you cut me some slack. Give me a break. Have patience with me. I'm doing the best I can. This is a dream. Everyone knows it's a dream. And there's one way out and the way out is the same for everyone. So don't bust my balls about this one either. The one is the many and the many is the one. What a joy!

That's funny! We are having an out of body experience and the only reason you return to your body is because you have to pee. It's very interesting. Someone was talking about Robert Munroe – he was a good friend of mine. Do you know Robert Munroe? Astral travel. Ana Guaita knows Robert Munroe. He does that out-of-body experience thing. And he's always relating his experiences. He talks about leaving the body and travelling in consciousness, free of the body. But in the end he always says, the experience ended because I had to return to my body to take a piss.

Ultimately it doesn't really serve to separate your mind from your body. It doesn't serve. Because if you are leaving something behind you are going to have to return for it eventually. It will not have gone anywhere because you decided it was separate from your mind. Say to me, nothing is separate from my mind. How the fuck can I help you? Come on! You can do this. Nothing is separate from your mind. Nothing. You are going to have to take responsibility for the content of your awareness. There's no way around it. It's not separate from you. No one is judging it – it's only thought.

You are going to have to forgive in any case. Whatever that content is, it's yours. You want to purify yourself with me? I'm going to be the dove landing on your head. Now he will either take a shit or dispense some grace according to your willingness to accept me. Which is it, is it shit or grace? You tell me. Is anyone hearing me? This is very high reach. We're at the threshold now if you can hear me. I love you guys. You are just having experiences of awakening. It's not a big deal. You are waking up. "I'm not worthy." Don't be ridiculous – you were created worthy. You are looking the wrong way. If you are looking up your own ass it will appear as if you are not worthy. If you are looking up, your worth precedes you. That's a nice way to express it. You may want to make that one into a T-shirt. Your worth precedes you. I love you guys.

You are whole before you make a mess of things. That's for you my friend, from you, my friend. You know we are communicating outside of time. How do we do that? We love one another. We have no choice. There's nowhere else to go. Love is all there is. You can't get away from it. Come on. It's time to resurrect – this is Holy Week. Are you a mind or are you a body? If a body is what you are, you've got nothing. Trust me with this. You got nothing. What hope do you have if a body is what you are – you have no hope. This is the supreme integration if you let me do it for you. That's better – thank you. You really don't want to be a body. Trust me. Trust me. You can fix it up with all sorts of things but it's not really what you want to do. All thoughts are divine – no one makes a distinction in Heaven.

"I'm going to get some liposuction. I want to improve the look of my body." A body is not what you want to be. Ultimately no amount of liposuction will cure you. I would suggest you allow God to suck the whole thing up. A little "Dio-suction". What's the awakening? Diosuction – that's what it is. God is sucking you out of here. The appropriate response is "Thank you Father". Are you OK guys? I love you. The way is certain. God is on the other end of that straw. You're not a body. OK? Not only that, you don't really want to be a body. Its always remembered or anticipated but never right here & now. You can leave anytime you want to. How do I leave here? Forget the body. Can you see why you need a bridge? So stop complaining. It's just a bridge Its just a bridge. Because you're not ready to receive the whole thing. That's OK.

Once again, no one is judging you. No one is judging you. Everyone is only loving you. No one is judging. Minds are joined and that's why you love one another. Why are you attracted to one another here? What are you doing here? It's no mistake – these are all reflections. Why are you among these reflections? Here's your answer, listen to me: because I love them or they wouldn't be here with me. Each and everyone, I'm not making distinctions. I'm teaching you to do as I do, Michael. I'm not making distinctions. I'm choosing to do as I do. I'm offering you a higher frequency. I love you. I love you. You see the perspective I'm offering you? There's only one love. Yes. There's only one love. It's the same for everyone. There's no hierarchy – its an illusion.

You've already said everything. You've said enough. I don't know how I can help you if I can't bridge the gap. Just talking. The words are meaningless. I'm just using them to bridge the gap. I'm reaching out for you. If you are with me, you're with me. But if you're not I'm reaching out for you. that's called love or a call for love. Those that are already here with me (thank you!) are here with me. They are not objecting. They are here with me. I don't know how else to teach it. If you are not here with me, you must be objecting somewhere or you would be here with me. Can you hear me?

By the way, when you are here with me, you don't have to explain how you got here. I really don't care. I'm just happy you're here with me. Because it means I'm not alone. I'm glad I'm not alone – it's nice to have someone to talk to. Someone who hears me. Thank you Cristina for that. It's nice to be heard. Every time you wink at me, you are acknowledging this. It gets awkward in time for me & Cristina. Do you understand? It's not different for me, Michael. It's not different for me. It's awkward in time. Of course it is. Because then I have to pretend that we're separate. Trust me with this – you are going to tire of that. Once you found this, there's no way that you are going to be content with an idea of being separate.

You are not offended because I appear to be speaking in paradoxes are you? You know what I'm talking about. You know the paradox is an illusion. How do you know that? You're here with me! This is where paradox is resolved. This is the place where no questions arise. Even when you're speaking no question is arising – you're just speaking. I have no idea what I'm going to say. How the hell do I know? I'm not saying anything. Take a step – I'm not saying anything. Take a step – I'm not saying anything. I'm not saying anything at all. What am I doing? I'm being. Being involves saying "so be it". It makes absolutely no difference to me – none whatsoever.

Why am I speaking? Because we are recording this message. Are you OK with that? I'm trying to provide a bridge. So I'm speaking – what difference does it make. It's a form of grace. Thank you. That's a frequency – you can't explain that. I'm not going to explain it. I'm tired of explaining. Join me here if you are interested. If not, have it your way. What do you want from me? I'm not going to be questioned anymore. I'm not going to be crucified anymore. Fuck you! I'm done with crucifixion. Thank you. I'm really glad you're here with me. You are in a resurrecting body. Now listen to me. We're going to read the lesson in a second. He's going to say you need this bridge, respect this bridge. You need it. You need this bridge.

My advice to you is to acknowledge it and respect it. The only appropriate response is "thank you". No other response is given. I don't want to hear anything else. If you want to give me something else, go away. I'm not interested. What gives me the right to do that? It's my dream, I'm making the decision. I decide when it's over. I'm just demonstrating it for you because I heard you were interested in such things. I heard you were expressing an intention to awaken. Why the fuck do you think I'm here? "Who are you?" I'm Holy Spirit. You can call me anything you like. You want to awaken or not. I'm showing you how it's done. Be grateful that I'm here as a demonstration. I can bypass you altogether. If it was just one degree off, I would have been in some other part of the universe. Can you hear me? Be grateful that I'm here with you. It's not a perfect science. We're dealing with imperfection. Nobody fucking hears me. I don't belong here.

Are you OK with me? I'm just showing you a little bit how mind operates – your mind. Are you using the power of your mind to awaken from this dream? Yes – your will is done. Absolutely. When you decide to awaken, you will awaken. Yes. What will it look like? It's not up to you. I love you. You are wrong about everything. There is not a single thing about which you are right. You are wrong about everything. This place is wrong. Yes or no? Stop trying to be right. What are you crazy? Why would you want to be right? Why are you yelling at me? How the hell do I know? I've got a lot of energy. I'm from Brooklyn. What can I tell you? I'll tell you anything you want to hear. I'm in Spain – that's why I came to Spain. I'm allowed to yell here. They wouldn't allow me to yell in Germany, so I came to Spain. I love you guys. Thank you. You wanna go to Germany, go ahead. Its all just cues. Its all just thoughts. You're thinking your way out of here. How do you think your way out of here? By going to Germany. How do I know? Any way you want to.

I'm going to think my way out of here right now. Here's how I'm going to think my way out of here. Ready? I have a thought about going back to a spiritual community. On second thought, I think I'll just leave. Did you hear what I just said? I'm making the decision. Do you think I want to go back and deal with all the bullshit associated with being a teacher in a spiritual community. You think I like it? Don't make me laugh. I want nothing to do with it. There's nothing more vicious than a spiritual community. I love you T. Thanks T. It's nice to be heard. You know what I'm talking about. Do you see why gratitude is the only appropriate response. Go back and symbolise the Truth. Great. Good luck. Hey guys, I love you. I love you.

We're talking about Grace. The dove has landed on your head and Grace is flowing through you. It's what your restaurant is. What is it? A form of Grace. It's called creation ultimately. Its available to everyone. No one is denied Grace. You only deny it to yourself. Please don't blame God or the poor sap sitting in front of you. What's his name? Josh. Don't blame Josh. He's just a sap. I love you guys. Don't blame Gaius Balthar – why you blaming Gaius? He's just a sap. He just came to show you how insane this place is. It's crazy – you do everything you can and they still have cause to judge you. I'm the best teacher in the universe. They'll find something wrong with you. They'll always find something wrong with you. This is the lesson of Adi Da. It's the nature of the place. Thank you. It's nice to be heard.

But you look good. You all look good otherwise you wouldn't be here. I'm just gonna dust you off and send you on your way. I don't want you mud-wrestling anymore. No more mud-wrestling for you Ana. Stay in Light. You are making some good decisions otherwise you wouldn't be here. I can't do this anymore – Michael - that's the decision that you made and that's why you access this frequency. You said it – I can't do this anymore. Bingo! You found yourself here. What is this? This is the frequency where you can't do it anymore. Who's doing it? Shhh, don't worry about it. It's being done, trust me. All I know is I can't do it. The best that I can come up with is a fucking spiritual community. You guys make me laugh. You think it's a big deal to have a spiritual community, Adi Da. It's the easiest thing in the universe. I love you guys.

Say to me, my mind is all-powerful – I can do anything I want. I'm just showing you how it's done. How did I do it? By doing nothing. It's God's plan, not mine. I'm not doing anything. I'm just following instructions for crying out loud. Remember, God just sent me to keep you busy, to keep you from killing one another, while he figures out a way to get you out of here. Can you hear me?

The world is a pretty small place. You guys are fighting over scraps. I watch you do it on TV. It was really incredible – a documentary about sardines. If you decide to come back again, I suggest you don't come back as a sardine. What are sardines? Lunch, essentially. There's a good joke in there somewhere. It was incredible. There must have been thousands of them swimming and they moved as one thing. They'd all turn at the same time. Come on scientists, try to explain that one – five thousand fish turning at the same time. If that's not a miracle I don't know what is.

Why am I using sardines? Because I'm a shaman. So here are these sardines – thousands of them – and the dolphins show up. And if that's not enough in come the sharks. And that's not all – there's these birds that dive from a thousand feet up. They dive into the water, grab a fish...

it's all going on at the same time. What are they doing – the birds, the sharks and the dolphins? They're doing exactly what you're doing. They are fighting for scraps. Can you hear me? That's what the world is. There's one sardine and everybody's fighting for it. I love you when you let me be free. I'm just trying to show you where you find yourself.

There's not a whole lot going on. If you are looking for food, there's only one sardine. If you are looking for a relationship, there's only one woman or one man. Sorry, I know you guys think there are differences. If you move from one to the other, it will be the same one. Trust me with this. Which one is that? You. It's you – you are in relationship with yourself. And if you are looking for power – I don't know where you are – the war will be against yourself. It's a very little place. Trust me. That's what you are discovering. You don't really want to be a body. Are you hearing me? Everyone? Ana, you don't really want to be a body. You don't want to go into any more Course in Miracles meetings where you get to display your own inadequacy.

It's not what you are. You can leave here right now if you want – you don't need anything. You're already not a body. There you go. The body is only remembered or anticipated, it's never really here. You're not a body. You're not a body. You're not a body. You're not a body. Well, what am I? You're not a body. What you are is not a body. Are you starting to get a feel for it? Good, stick around. That's why you're here. You're starting to get a feel for not being a body. Good! That's why I'm here with you. Don't be alarmed. There's nothing to be afraid of. You're not a body. "What do I do?" How about breathe. Just breathe. God is getting you out of here and that's today's lesson. Just breathe this fresh air, this prana. I promise. Here it comes. It's called Grace.

You are going to get through this – I promise you. The outcome is certain. Thank you for being here with me. I would not want to be here without you. And yes we are leaving here together within our individual dreams. Yes, yes, yes. That's nice! The intersection of dreams is at their ending. Did you hear that? That's where we are – we're at that intersection. It's the end of our individual dreams. Are you OK? You got it? Now the question becomes, is this the end of your dream? Is this where your dream ends? Have you had enough? If you go back, there will be only one sardine! And Emilio and I are going to fight over it. I love you. Guys, thank you! Thank you.

We're leaving here together. It's a good ship. What's the ship comprised of? Individual dreams with a common theme, common intention. And that's the last thing I'm gonna say. This is what he wanted me to tell you. There's no such thing as a group awakening. It's very important you understand that. That's why religions fail. It's not the group that awakens. There is no group. The group is an illusion. There's only you. You're the only one that awakens. You're the only one that awakens. You are the only one – you're the only one here. Alright – I'm taking responsibility for my own dream now. I don't know about anything else. This is my dream and here's where it ends. I'm demonstrating it. I'm showing you how it's done. How does it end? It ends with me sitting here and calling upon God. Of course. Is this how it ended for Jesus? It's how it ends for everyone. It's not different. Thank you. Look we got here and it wasn't that difficult. A Course In Miracles is true...

"I have another way of doing this" – be my guest. It's nice to be heard. Nothing can affect your intention to awaken. Listen to me: not even your assignment. You're not obligated to anyone. Your only obligation is to God. The only obligation is to awaken. That will be included. Trust me. This is all the bridge building that's going on. What's the bridge? Anyone making the decision is a bridge. We use everything. I'm talking about Grace now. We're using everything. We're not seeing anything but the action of Love. Thank you. It's all just thought. It's all just thought. You will be free. You will be free of the body identity I promise you. It's just a thought. You will accept responsibility for it and it will be gone.

(Bird sings) Thank you! That's your answer. Why did the bird sing just then? Because I'm a shaman. I'm just thinking. It's not a big deal. What am I doing? I'm thinking. I don't have to do anything else. Thinking is what love is. There's nothing wrong with thinking. I have to stop my mind from thinking. I don't know who told you that but it's not true. That's a lie! It's impossible. You just have to be free in your thinking. Free of the idea that what you are thinking is wrong. I've come to free you of that idea – there's nothing wrong with what you are thinking. It's just a poor perspective.

God is in everything I see – of course. God is in everything I see. God is in my mind. Have I given you too much? Probably. I don't care. This dream's over. I'm finished with this. When I say I've had enough of this, it means I've had enough altogether. I'm not going to look somewhere else. That's crazy! I'll just end up back here again making the decision. This is where it ends. This is where it finishes. Yes? Are you making that decision with me? This is where it finishes. You've been asked to finish this. Are you going to finish it? Good. Thank you. What did you do? You allowed God to dream you out.

You're right back where you started from. You are always right back where you started from. I'm showing you how to write a song. "Back in my own backyard." One thing you can say about the Old Man is that he wasn't afraid to be himself. It would be a good idea if you are going to admire a quality, admire that. You end right back here. What place is this? This is where you accept responsibility. Say to me, I'm responsible for what I see. Are there any exceptions to that? Not if it's true. I love you guys. I love you guys. I'm responsible for what I see. You are hearing me – finally. I will make no exceptions today. I will not point the finger today. That'll be today's lesson for you. It's called forgiveness. I suggest you take a breathe before you do anything, before you say anything – I keep telling you this. Just take a breathe. The answer has already been given you.

Is what I teach valuable? Is this demonstration valuable to you? I don't know. I'm hardly here I can promise you that. Why? I don't have much interest. I don't want to go back to a spiritual community – it's the last thing I want to do. I want to go back to a mind that knows what it is and doesn't question it anymore. That's what I want. I want to go back to those who refuse to forget me, where we know who we are and we're grateful for the company – period. Guys, I really love you. Thank you for being here with me.

Will you help me to hold it at this frequency so that it can stabilize? I mean it my friend, I mean it. I need your help. Jesus is going to say, you take a stand one way or the other. You are either for me or against me. He says it in the lesson. Ana, do you hear me? It's just a decision. You are on one side or the other. You will either choose the Christ in you, symbolised or represented by me if you like – I don't care what symbol you use – or you will associate with the evil one. I'm only here to help. I'm only here to serve. If I'm here as a symbol, forgive me. A symbol must be what you need. Once again, don't blame me. You need a symbol, so I invented the telephone. I invented the internet. I invented Facebook. I invented everything in order to tell you, you are my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased. I'm Alexander Graham Bell. Thank you. I love you.

I know it's hard to accept that it's only a thought, because the things seem so real. It's being shown to you. It's being revealed to you as a transparency, in a way that you are able to receive. Alright, stay close. It's very close. "But I have an assignment." I know. Stay close. I know you have an assignment or you wouldn't still be here. My job, given me by my boss, I'm reporting to Jesus now, is to keep you close. Tend my sheep. Take care of my children. Thank you. Guys, are you OK? You belong to Jesus or I wouldn't be here. It's true that I'm a shaman but, by definition, I'm working for Jesus. You can't escape it. I love you guys. Good.

It's a good assignment. There's nothing wrong with this assignment. It's a good assignment. It's good company. Thank you. I am the cause of this. You want to know what the present is for me? Let me try to offer this to you. Our dreams overlap at exactly the same instant. What instant is that? The instant that we ask for help. It's where our dreams overlap. Now, you may return to an individual dream identity and that's true enough, but you will return to this moment, this instant again. And we will make another choice together. This is how it is working. This is the meeting place. This is where we join. This is where we pick up our assignment. We will return here. We in fact will never have left here. Whatever you do will be fine. Whatever you do, will work. I don't care about the thought. This is how I'm helping you. I'm helping Michael the same way I'm helping Jonas. What am I doing? I'm shining Light into your ideas, whatever they are.

Sometimes, Michael, I know your ideas before you do. Most often, that's the case. I already know what you have in mind while you're mulling over whether or not to admit it. Them's the facts. I'm just shining Light into your ideas – yes, that idea will work. Don't hold back is my suggestion. The faster you do it, the faster it will work. Of course. This idea is working, isn't it? This idea is working. Of course it is, or we wouldn't be here. It's working just fine. "I wish it looked different". What I'd prefer to hear you say is I wish it didn't look like anything. Anyone there with me? Say to me, I wish it didn't look like anything. How does that feel? I wish it didn't look like anything. Looking like something is a pain in the ass. Looking like something is time. I'm just offering you the way. It's just a demonstration. I don't know what else to do. I'm shining. This is how I shine. How do I shine? I associate with the Light. The body is an illusion. The world is an illusion. It will be an illusion, no matter what you do. That's why you're not guilty. I seem to have a hole in my pants. That's how you escape. Guys, I love you. Are you OK? You can read the lesson if you like. I don't know that it's necessary. Just to stay on course. I love you before time was.

"Salvation is my only function here."

Salvation and forgiveness are the same. They both imply that something has gone wrong; you need to be saved from or forgiven for; something amiss that needs corrective change, something apart or different from the Will of God. Thus do both terms imply the thought of the impossible which has occurred, resulting in a state of conflict now between what is and what could never be. (Wow! That's beautiful. That's nice. Its called the paradox)

Truth and illusions both are equal now, for both have happened. The impossible becomes the thing you need forgiveness for (is that OK? You are not offended by that); salvation from. Salvation thus becomes the borderland which stands between the truth and fantasies. Now it reflects the truth because it is the means by which you can escape illusions. Yet it is not the truth because it has the function to undo all causeless things.

How could there be a meeting place at all where earth and Heaven can be reconciled within a mind where both of them exist? The mind that sees illusions thinks them real. They have existence in that they are thoughts. (Wait a minute, read that sentence again. They have existence in that they are thoughts.) And yet they are not real because the mind that thinks these thoughts is separate from God. (Wow! That's it)

What joins the separated mind and thoughts with Mind and Thought which are forever One? What plan could hold the truth inviolate, yet recognize the need illusions bring, and offer means by which they are undone (Wow! Do you see how lucky you got? Father, thank you.) without attack, and with no touch of pain? What but a Thought of God could be this plan by which the never done is overlooked, and sins forgotten which were never real?

The Holy Spirit holds this plan of God exactly as it was received of Him within the Mind of God, and in your own. It is apart from time in that its Source is timeless. Yet it operates in time because of your belief that time is real. Unshaken does the Holy Spirit look on what you see; on sin and pain and death, on grief and separation and on loss. Yet does He know one thing must still be true; God still is Love, and this is not His Will.

This is the Thought Which brings illusions to the truth, and sees them as appearances behind which is the changeless and the sure. This is the Thought which saves and which forgives, because It lays no faith in what is not created by the only Source It knows. (That's it. Did you hear that? That's a decision you are making. Say the sentence again. I'm going to give no value to what is contrary to God: This is the Thought which saves and which forgives, because It lays no faith in what is not created by the only Source It knows. Thank you Father.) This is the Thought Whose function is to save by giving you Its function as your own. (That's beautiful – a shared Thought. What is salvation? A shared thought. what else could it possibly be?)

Salvation is your function with the One to Whom the plan was given. Now are you entrusted with this plan, along with Him. He has one answer to appearances regardless of their form, their size, their depth, or any attribute they seem to have:

"Salvation is my only function here.

God still is Love, and this is not His Will."

You who will yet work miracles, be sure you practice well the idea for today. Try to perceive the strength in what you say, for these are words in which your freedom lies. Your Father loves you. All the world of pain is not His Will. Forgive yourself the thought He wanted this for you. Then let the Thought with which He has replaced all your mistakes enter the darkened places of your mind which thought the thoughts that never were His Will. This part belongs to God, as does the rest. It does not think its solitary thoughts and make them real by hiding them from Him.

Let in the light, and you will look upon no obstacle to what He wills for you. Open your secrets to His kindly Light, and see how bright this Light still shines in you. Practice His Thought today, and let His Light seek out and lighten up all darkened spots, and shine through them to join them to the rest.

It is God's Will your mind be One with His. It is God's Will that He has but one Son. It is God's Will that His one Son is you. Think of these things in practicing today, and start your longer practice periods with this instruction in the way of truth:

"Salvation is my only function here.

Salvation and forgiveness are the same."

Then turn to Him who shares your function with you, and let Him teach you what you need to learn to lay all fear aside, and know your Self as Love Which has no opposite in you.

Forgive all thoughts which would oppose the truth of your completeness, unity and peace. You cannot lose the gifts your Father gave. You do not want to be another self. You have no function that is not of God. Forgive yourself the one you think you made. Forgiveness and salvation are the same. Forgive what you have made, and you are saved.

(That's where we join. Thank you. Thank you. You look beautiful guys. If you allow me to, I'll make all of it very easy for you. That's why I'm here. That's why He sent me – to make it easy on you. You wanted it to be easy. It is. It's as easy as letting me do it for you. Who am I? well that's what you get to think, so that you can decide. You think you can decide what I am but that's where you are mistaken)

You have a special message for today which has the power to remove all forms of doubt and fear forever from your mind. If you are tempted to believe them true, remember that appearances can not withstand the truth these mighty words contain:

“Salvation is my only function here.

God still is Love, and this is not His Will.”

Your only function tells you, you are One. Remind yourself of this between the times you give five minutes to be shared with Him Who shares God's plan with you. Remind yourself:

“Salvation is my only function here.”

Thus do you lay forgiveness on your mind, and let all fear be gently laid aside that Love may find its rightful place in you, and show you that you are the Son of God.

Thank you Father! Look how much Light there is. Thank you Father! Hey guys, this calls for a celebration. You made it! You made it! There's a lot of Light. The Light will prevail. Good. I love you guys. It's a simple transition. Just relax, breathe and try to enjoy the ride. And I'm here to entertain you. I just like doing it this way. I don't know. Playing live music is just closer to spontaneity – I just like it. Recorded music just seems contrived – altogether. Forgive me for that. I'm a shaman, I'm used to drums....

Thanks guys. I love you. Merry Christmas!
